Handover of leisure centres hits delay

THE handover of all leisure centres, museums and theatres in Cannock from council control to a charitable trust has been delayed.

Cannock Chase Council was due to transfer its culture and leisure facilities to Wigan Leisure and Culture Trust in February.

But delays with paperwork have been blamed and the contract is expected to start on April 1.

More than £2 million of extra investment will be ploughed into facilities over the next decade after the trust takes control.

It will be responsible for running the new look Cannock Chase Leisure Centre, which is undergoing a £6.3 million modernisation.

It will also take on Cannock Park Golf Course, Rugeley Leisure Centre, the Prince of Wales Centre, the Museum of Cannock Chase and sports, arts and play development services.

Council bosses agreed to the trust running services after almost a year of talks.

Council corporate director Tony McGovern said: "This delay is very much a case of going through the finer points of the contract."

Trust chief executive Stuart Murray said: "We are confident that this delay in processing the legal documentation will only be a matter of weeks."

Raiders out of their depth

BUNGLING thieves were halted when a resident reported them pulling their heavy haul - a large orange dinghy belonging to Chasewater Boating Club - through the streets.

Police were called to Sherwood Walk, Aldridge, at 7.05pm on Tuesday and found the boat and a trailer used to load it into and out of water at Aldridge Marina.

Three youths described as "weedy" by the caller had fled before officers arrived.

CHANGES TO BUS SERVICE BACKED

A NUMBER of improvements to 12 bus services across central and south Staffordshire have been welcomed by passengers.

The changes, including new and revised routes in the Stafford, Cannock, Rugeley, Walsall and Wolverhampton areas, will come into operation on Sunday (January 29).

Arriva Midlands said the improvements have been brought in as a result of passenger feedback.

David Ellison, secretary of the Castle Community Partnership in Western Downs, Stafford, said: "We're usually battling against cuts in bus services, so this is good news. It's an important issue locally."

"Many people from round here travel to Cannock Chase Hospital, so the extra service will be appreciated."

One of the biggest revisions has been the addition of a late afternoon departure from Stafford to Cannock on the 835 service through Brocton and Pye Green along the A34.

Place

This will now leave from Stafford's Earl Street at 5.20pm on Monday to Friday and will run via Huntington and Cannock en route to Hednesford and Burntwood.

A requested change in the route of the number 70 bus from Cannock and Featherstone to Wolverhampton will take place at the city centre end of the journey.

Passengers will be able to alight at Lichfield Street, Victoria Street, Cleveland Street, Market Street and Princess Street.

Arriva said it would be more convenient for the House of Fraser store and the market. The number 68

By Mark Mudie

Cannock to Wolverhampton will no longer call at Lakeside Boulevard, Bridgtown, because of the small numbers of people using the stop and the proximity of alternative ones in Walkmill Lane.

A new No 31 service will partly replace the Nos 32 and 33 buses between Rugeley, Hednesford, Chads Moor and Cannock running up to every 30 minutes daytime from Monday to Saturday.

Daytime journeys on the No 32 will run between Hednesford, Chads Moor, Cannock, Heath Hayes, Norton Canes, and Brownhills, with buses diverted along Jerome Road between Walsall Road and Brownhills Road in Norton Canes.

Occasional journeys continue to run from Cannock to Rugeley.

The No 33 Rugeley - Walsall service, via Hednesford, Cannock and Brownhills, will run 10 minutes earlier in each direction.

Arriva spokesman Keith Myatt said: "We have listened to our customers."

"Other services are being revised to ensure we continue to provide a regular, reliable and robust network of local bus services that our customers expect and deserve."

Searchlight club to beat the boredom

Members of the Searchlight holiday club promote the half term activities at Churchfield Primary School

A RUGELEY club is hoping to ease the school holiday boredom for youngsters in the town with a series of activities.

Rugeley Searchlight Holiday Club will run its second week of fun and games during the February half-term after a first event last year proved to be a big success. Next month's theme focuses on recycling and is called Waste Watchers.

Bible

The week of events, from Monday to Friday, February 13-17, will include games, crafts, music, video presentations and Bible stories.

Activities take place every day from 10am-12.30pm at Churchfields Primary School, in Sandy Lane and are open to children of any age.

Fear over escaped 'danger' prisoner

THE mother of murder victim Richard Deakin has spoken of her devastation and fears after one of the men accused of his killing escaped from a prison van.

Carol Deakin, whose son Richard was shot at his Chasetown home in July 2010, said she has been in a state of shock since suspect John Anslow was sprung by three masked men.

Police have described Anslow as "dangerous".

Mrs Deakin said: "I'm absolutely devastated, I can't believe this has happened. 'I'm terrified for my personal safety and that of my family.'"

Masked men armed with sledge hammers held up the van which was taking Anslow to Stafford Crown Court on Monday (23).

The driver was attacked in the ambush near HMP Hewell, Redditch, and 31-year-old Anslow was freed.

Last week he was charged with the murder of skip hire boss Mr Deakin, who was shot dead in bed at his home, in Meadow Street, Chasetown. Four other men are also accused.

Mrs Deakin, of Cheslyn Hay, and other members of the family have attended all the court hearings. She was advised by police to go straight home and await a visit from them.

They called at her semi-detached house later.

Crimes are written off

STAFFORDSHIRE Police wrote off a quarter of incidents that should have been recorded as crimes, but inspectors say that decision was correct.

Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary (HMIC) reviewed 100 'no crime' records and found in 75, the decision to not take any action was correct.

A further 120 incidents were also looked at.

Patients waiting more than a year

MORE than 3,000 people have had to wait longer than a year for treatment at Stafford and Cannock Chase Hospitals, latest figures show.

Bosses at Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust this week apologised and are offering patients alternative care at other health trusts. The latest waiting time statistics show that in November 2011 a total of 3,161 patients had been waiting more than a year for treatment. The delays were mainly to see experts in orthopaedics, gastroenterology and thoracic medicine.

The Government's target for patients being seen is within 18 weeks.

aggie Oldham, chief operating officer at the Mid Staffordshire NHS Trust, said today: "We apologise to those who are having to wait longer than the target of 18 weeks from the time they are referred by their own GP to the time they receive treatment.

Factors

"This problem has been caused by a combination of factors, including having a higher demand for services than had been anticipated.

"Although we know that for each individual patient, it is not satisfactory to have to wait longer than 18 weeks, some patients' needs are more urgent for clinical reasons. Together with GPs, we are assessing the needs of each patient who is waiting."

Mid Staffordshire did not submit any waiting time data for October 2011, blaming an "ongoing computer problem".

Major step, say bosses as car part firm grows

AN American car parts business has hailed its expansion into Burntwood as a "major step". Charter Automotive is buying a 57,000 sq ft factory in the town for £1.72 million.

The new base is located on the Burntwood Business Park.

The firm has a plant at Ringway Industrial Estate, in Eastern Avenue, Lichfield, that makes engine valves and is expected to relocate its operations to the new site.

John Mellowes, chairman and chief executive of Charter Manufacturing, said the expansion would allow the company to strengthen its position as a supplier of valve spring retainers, valve keys and other components.

It expects to begin manufacturing at the plant later this year and will ultimately consolidate all of its European operations there.

"The expansion of our manufacturing capabilities in England will strengthen our position as a global supplier to OEM automotive and powertrain industries and will allow us to better meet the growing needs of Charter Automotive's rapidly expanding European and worldwide customer base," said Mr Mellowes.

Larger

Pete Murray, vice president and general manager of Charter Automotive, said the move to a "larger plant" was a significant milestone for the company.

He said: "Our expansion into a new and larger plant in England is a major step in our global manufacturing strategy to support customers throughout the world with a balanced operating footprint in the United States, Europe and China."

It is not known how many jobs will be created but bosses are said to be looking for more skilled workers in the next few months.

Driver is rewarded for using toll road

A BURNTWOOD commuter has been named as the 125 millionth user of the M6 Toll.

John Langstaff has been awarded free travel on the 27-mile pay-as-you-go for 12 months by operators Midland Expressway Limited (MEL).

Mr Langstaff, who was awarded the Freedom of the Road at MEL's head office, said: "I commute daily from my home in Burntwood to my workplace in Solihull and travel around the region on business visiting clients on behalf of my employer, Northgate Managed Services.

"I always choose to use the M6 Toll as it the most reliable route, ensuring that I'm always on time for my appointments.

"Being awarded Freedom of the Road was a real surprise. I use the road regularly for both personal and business journeys, so unlimited free travel for a year will be very welcome."

Tom Fanning, CEO of MEL said: "Mr Langstaff has been awarded the Freedom of the Road, which entitles him to unlimited journeys using his M6 Toll Tag."

The tag is an electronic device which allows drivers to use dedicated Tag lanes without stopping at toll plazas.

Funding to aid toddlers

A PARENT and toddler group has been handed £1,600 towards play equipment at its new venue.

Hammerwich Parent and Toddler Group has received the money from The Co-operative's Community Fund. It will enable the purchase of outdoor play equipment for the group's new home at Burntwood Memorial Institute, Rugeley Road.

Suzanne Steele, from the group said: "We have recently moved to accommodate all our new members and this grant will give us the opportunity to buy play equipment."

£13m plan awaits its go-ahead

A PROVISIONAL date has been given for the start of a £13 million scheme to build apartments for older people in Penkridge.

The South Staffordshire Housing Association project is aimed at the over-55s. Work on the 82 flats and other amenities on the site of a former nursing home in Tildesley Close could begin in May – if South Staffordshire planners give the go-ahead next month.

The scheme includes an extra 12 apartments, hair-dressing salon, cafe and a gymnasium, which the local community could use.

The proposals went out for public consultation on Saturday. The developers say the project could be finished by September 2013.

The one and two bedroom apartments on the former Silverdene residential home site will provide a package of care services. Nearby residents petitioned against the demolition of the nursing home which closed in 2008.

People can still see the plans and give their opinions before the formal submission of the South Staffordshire Council next month.

Funding is from the Homes and Communities Agency and South Staffordshire Council.

Murderer's husband talks about his ordeal

Lee Jones

THE HUSBAND of Sheila Jones, who beat her grandmother to death, has spoken of his "horrendous" ordeal and how he broke the news to their children that their mother was a murderer.

Lee Jones, of Brownhills Road, Norton Canes, said he was left in the dark about what his wife had done when police launched the murder investigation following the death of Daisy Myring last year.

The mother-of-two was jailed for at least 22 years last November after admitting killing the frail 92-year-old. Mr Jones, aged 41, said it was still hard to believe his wife had been capable of such a crime. After starting a new life with his sons, aged seven and nine, he is considering filing for divorce.

The court heard how his 36-year-old wife had fleeced her grandmother out of her £7,000 savings.

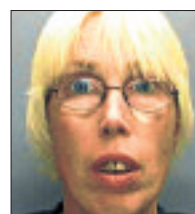

She launched the attack with a stool at Mrs Myring's home in Albion Road, Brownhills, on May 31. The partially blind pensioner was found with multiple head injuries, numerous cuts and bruises, and died in hospital. Mr Jones said: "I didn't suspect anything." He said he had no idea where the stolen money had been spent and that he had not known his wife to be violent.

Mr Jones, who was initially considered a police suspect, suffered a breakdown and is being treated for depression. "Going through all this has been horrendous," he said.

Trying to protect his sons, he first told them their mother was helping to find the killer.

He added: "On the day she was sentenced the boys were at school. I picked them up, brought them home and sat them down to explain what had happened. They were as shocked as me."

Sheila Jones

Council leading way with house building, says chief

THE first council house building programme in Cannock Chase for a generation should be rolled out across the district and beyond, according to the authority's deputy leader.

Councillor Janos Toth wants to see the £6 million scheme in Chads Moor repeated elsewhere and called on other authorities to follow Cannock's lead.

Fifty properties will replace outdated Reema prefabricated houses under plans revealed this week.

Councillor Toth said: "We are leading the way and I hope there could be further building of social housing in future."

As well as the new properties all 5,500 council homes will receive a facelift.

Work on the new properties in the Moss Road estate could start early next year while refurbishments will start in 2013/14.

Tenants

The council is investing £5m replacing windows and redecorating authority-owned homes across the district, bringing the total cost to £11m, which will come from savings.

Tenants of the Reema flats will be the first to move out.

Housing boss Councillor Frank Allen expects the process to clear 63 houses and 170 flats to take "around a year".

"It is dependent on us getting people out of the

by Mark Mudie

Reema houses so we can build on the site," he said.

"Realistically that takes some time, around a year at least."

"This really is an exciting prospect."

He added: "It has been 25 years since we built our last council house in 1987 and, frankly, the people of Cannock Chase deserve better."

"Work will start in 2013/14 and will take us about five years to complete."

The move has been welcomed by colleagues like health chief Muriel Davis' who dubbed the scheme "a new beginning for that area of Chads Moor".

It is the latest boost for council tenants in Cannock after it was confirmed hundreds will receive long-awaited upgrades to their rundown blocks of flats.

In total £679,000 will be pumped into improvements at 31 blocks, containing 188 flats.

Dark ways bring in the bronze

BREWERY staff are toasting success after picking up an award in a national competition.

The Beowulf Brewing Company in Chasewater Country Park, Pool Road, won a bronze for its strong mild Dark Raven at the National Winter Ales Festival in Manchester.

The Campaign for Real Ale's big winter event, which is held at the city's Sheridan Suite, opened last Wednesday (January 19) and ended on Saturday (21).

The company picked up the award in the old ales and strong milds category.

Dark Raven also won the firm a bronze award during a regional competition last year.

Launched

Brewery boss Phil Bennett, who launched the firm in 1997, said they had been brewing the drink for about 12 years.

The 57-year-old, of Sutton Coldfield, said: "It's a strong mild, dark, quite sweet and there's a bit of a toffee apple flavour to it."

"We also won a silver for our Finn's Hall Porter last year in the same national competition."

The Beowulf Brewing Company was first set up in an abandoned Co-op store in yardley, Birmingham and moved to Chasewater in 2003.

THE BEST
RHODES

FASCINATORS are to be banned from the Royal Enclosure at Ascot, apparently because they are vulgar. My first inclination was to defend them as pretty, frivolous and flattering. Then I remembered the ladies of the office wearing these items for last year's Royal Wedding and referring to their fascinators as fornicators. Wicked girls.

DIANA Wallis, a Member of the European Parliament, decides to resign. Under the rules there is no need for an election. The £68,000 (plus exes) job simply passes to the next person on the Lib-Dem candidate list who happens to be her husband. What a great invention, a gravy train you can keep in the family.

THE women's website Mumsnet says the "non-negotiable qualities" a man must bring to a relationship are a sense of humour, a willingness to share chores and the ability to get rid of big spiders. Well, two out of three's not bad.

AND now a stunning prediction. On or about April 15 this year, the 100th anniversary of the sinking of the Titanic, another big ship will be lost. Actually, it's not that stunning. Every year about 100 ships of 500 tons or more are lost at sea. That's about two a week. Few of them make headlines.

High-profile incidents such as the loss of the Costa Concordia are merely the biggest and most visible events in an endless catalogue of loss and bereavement. Those who work on the deep are, by definition, in peril.

IF WE are stupid enough, there is absolutely no reason why we should not have another war with Argentina over the Falkland Islands. As the 30th anniversary of the 1982 conflict approaches, the rhetoric is being ramped up on both sides.

I have interviewed soldiers and sailors who fought in the 1982 conflict. Almost without exception they were proud to have been there. They believed it was a just war, but thought it should never have been fought because a political settlement should have been reached long before. If a political settlement made sense before the 1982 war, why not now?

NEWS reaches me that all the vehicle satnav devices at Bradford police station have been stolen. Police are looking for Leeds.

FROM time to time on the farm where we live, a falconer hunts rabbits with a Harris hawk while our big tabby snarls in fury on the windowsill, furious to see trespassers on his manor.

We keep him indoors because we are not sure where a cat fits into the food chain. That question seems to have been answered by an incident last week in Stirling when a Harris hawk repeatedly attacked a toy poodle, ripping a chunk from its tongue and severely injuring an eye.

Having once spent a day hunting with a Harris, I was surprised to hear of one going for a dog. Information from hawkers would be welcome.

Trust to recruit two extra surgeons

HEALTH trust bosses overseeing Cannock and Stafford hospitals are to recruit two additional orthopaedic surgeons to cope with a surge in a need for limb surgery.

Managers at Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust said demand for elective lower limb and upper limb surgery at Cannock Chase Hospital and the associated trauma service at Stafford Hospital has outstripped capacity by 25 per cent.

A proposal was being put to the trust board today (Thursday) to recruit two additional orthopaedic consultants.

They will help deal with a backlog of patients waiting for treatment in orthopaedics.

While bosses want to fill the posts with permanent members of staff they acknowledge that a first step may be to take on locums to "deliver the benefits from an earlier start date". Health chiefs acknowledge the matter is urgent because of the length of time patients are waiting for treatment and the fact that the reputation of Mid-Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust is at risk.

Bosses admit they need to make sure 100 per cent of patients meet the referral to treatment target.

In the paper, Jayne Johnson, head of musculoskeletal, said: "The directorate seeks approval for the increase in the orthopaedic consultant team and supporting infrastructure to meet the ever increasing demands for orthopaedic procedures.

"The directorate has ensured that all current resources are effectively utilised prior to the submission of this case.

"Lack of capacity to meet demand will lead to the directorate not meeting and sustaining the national 18 week RTT target."

Jobs axe as council contracts firm fails

MORE than 40 workers in Cannock have been made redundant after a major council contractor went into administration.

The majority of assets from Fountains Group have been sold to a firm in West Sussex, saving more than 1,500 jobs, but the company's Staffordshire base will be closed.

The collapse of the council outsourcing specialist has made 450 workers jobless, among them 42 at Ash Park, in Hyssop Close, Cannock.

The firm carried out street cleaning and gardening services, including cemeteries and parks.

Councillor George Adamson, leader of the council, said: "Cannock Chase Council has been advised by its streetscene contractor, Fountains plc, that its business has gone into administration.

"The streetscene contract covers both street cleansing and grounds maintenance across the district of Cannock Chase. The council has put in place interim arrangements to provide a continued service to its residents.

"A permanent outcome will be confirmed in due course."

Hips health week appeal

A CHARITY supporting people with lower limb conditions is asking for fundraising activities and awareness during a health week from March 10-17.

Steps offers advice and information on a range of conditions, including clubfoot and hip dysplasia.

Acid splash eye agony of work experience boy

A CANNOCK teenager doing work experience at a car sales company was injured when acid splashed onto his face while he cut up containers with a craft knife.

Bret Thomas, a 16-year-old Cannock Chase High School pupil, was taken to hospital for treatment after the acid landed on his right eye and chest.

He was not wearing goggles or overalls at the time of the incident.

The area around his right eye was badly burned and spots of acid caused scarring on his face, although it is expected Bret will make a full recovery.

An investigation has been launched into the accident at the used car supermarket The Motorhouse, Wolverhampton Road, where he had been helping out for the past six months.

Bret claimed he was asked to remove labels from the empty acid containers and then cut them up with a knife so they could be disposed of.

After cutting up eight containers the last one had a small amount of acid, which splashed up onto his chest and face.

Slipped

Bret said: "I slipped with the Stanley knife and the acid hit me. I was screaming with pain and everyone thought I was joking at first."

"Then they realised it was serious and ran me to the toilet to splash water on my face. I was shaking and went into shock."

After receiving treatment at Cannock Hospital, Bret was taken to New Cross Hospital's eye infirmary.

He was given steroids and painkillers and currently has no vision from his right eye.

"It still kills now," he added. "I can't keep my eye open and it's giving me a headache to just have the one eye open."

Bret's mum Michelle

Bret Thomas, aged 16

Mayer said her son had been left traumatised.

John Mayer, Bret's grandfather, said: "His eyes are in a pretty bad state."

"He won't be blind and his eyes will be okay, but they'll take time to recover."

A spokesperson for the Health and Safety Executive (HSE) said: "The incident has been reported and the HSE is currently investigating."

Headteacher Barrie Scott said everyone was pleased Bret had returned to school.

"The incident is under investigation but the main thing from our point of view is that Bret's okay," he said.

"We're happy that we've checked from our point of view that health and safety procedures were in place, so it's a now a matter for The Motorhouse and the county council."

"But we were very concerned when we heard about it and have been in contact with Bret's family."

The Motorhouse declined to comment.

Publican's back inn the trade

Julie Yapp with her brother's business partner Paul Perry, manager of The Talbot

A PUBLICAN who has been out of the trade for two decades has taken over a Cheslyn Hay watering hole.

Julie Yapp is running The Talbot in Low Street, just along from The Colliers, where her brother Anthony Sinnott is co-manager. Punch Taverns has invested £190,000 revamping The Talbot, which serves home-cooked food three nights a week.

Mother-of-two Mrs Yapp, aged 52, said: "I have been out of the trade for 20 years.

There's more red tape now, a lot more paperwork with health and safety and things like that, but the rest hasn't changed much. It's about good cask ales. It's a warm, friendly pub and they've done a wonderful job with the revamp."

She added: "At the moment we are only doing food three nights a week but from February it will be Monday to Saturday."

The pub noticed a top five-star grade in the Rate My Place scheme.

Officials facing cut in salaries

CUTS to senior officers' salaries at Cannock Chase Council which could save the authority £90,000 will be decided by the authority's cabinet next month. A dozen officers are facing a pay cut. The pay adjustment and staff structure review committee was due to agree its proposals in December but put back the meeting.

Council leader George Adamson said the panel had finalised its recommendations but they would remain confidential until they are presented to cabinet.

The committee has been considering several options since Labour took control last May.

The authority's only six-figure salary could be brought below £100,000. Chief executive Stephen Brown currently commands a basic salary of £113,473. A further 11 officers receive a high five-figure sum.

Proposals, which include a flat rate cut of between five and 10 per cent for 12 officers, would save an estimated £90,000 a year.

When Councillor Adamson announced the review in June he took a 10 per cent cut in his £20,000 allowance. The council made eight compulsory redundancies after Government grant cuts last year.

Draft budget well received

CANNOCK Council's leader says a proposed budget recommending a council tax freeze and retaining current cemetery fees has been well received by residents.

A consultation was launched after draft proposals were published.

Councillor George Adamson said: "We have had the results of our public consultation back and people are generally positive."

"They were particularly pleased with the fact we will not increase burial fees."

A final plan will be presented to full council on February 15.

Leaders plea

A BROWNIE Unit in Cheslyn Hay is on the look out for new leaders.

The current leaders are no longer able to continue and the girls are desperate to find someone to take over so that their weekly meetings can continue.

Anyone that can help is asked to call Vera on 01922 414847.

Views sought on the effect of A&E closure

A HEALTH watchdog has urged patients and residents to come forward and raise questions about the overnight closure of Stafford Hospital's A&E department.

Staffordshire Local Involvement Network (LINk), which monitors and co-ordinates health and social service user feedback, made the appeal ahead of two public meetings this week.

The A&E department has been shut between 10pm and 8am since December 1 after hospital managers struggled to attract enough medical staff to cover the overnight shift.

Patients have been diverted to New Cross Hospital, Wolverhampton, Walsall Manor Hospital, Queens Hospital, Burton and the University Hospital of North Staffordshire, Stoke-on-Trent.

It was hoped the unit would re-open fully on March 1, but last week Lynn Hill-Tout, chief executive of the trust that runs Stafford and Cannock hospitals, said that would not happen if there were still concerns about safety.

Now managers at Staffordshire LINk are asking patients to tell them how the closure has affected them – or if it has not affected them at all.

Jackie Owen, Staffordshire LINk manager, said: "The two public meetings next week are an ideal opportunity for service users to have their opinions and experiences heard – whether those experiences have been good, bad or indifferent."

Private

"In addition, I will be having a private meeting with Lynn Hill-Tout at the end of the month, and the more opinions we have, the more patients can bring about the changes they want to see and preserve the services that are most important to them."

The Question Time-style public meetings take place tonight (Thursday) at Cannock Chase Council's Civic Suite, Beecroft Road, and on Friday at the Stafford Gatehouse Theatre, Eastgate Street.

Both events will take place between 6 and 8pm. Doors open at 5.45pm.

To get in touch with Staffordshire LINk, log on to www.staffordshirelink.org.uk, call 01785 887990 or email enquiries@staffordshirelink.org.uk

Misery of roadworks will be worth it, says council chief

MONTHS of roadworks misery on Staffordshire's roads will be worthwhile in the long run, according to the county council's highways chief Councillor Mike Maryon.

The authority is pumping an extra £20 million into repairing the road network over the next two years.

Paralympic Flame hope in store for customers

SHOPPERS in Cannock could be chosen to carry the Paralympic torch.

Sainsbury's is asking to customers to nominate teams or individuals to be part of the London 2012 Torch Relay.

Nominations close on February 14 and can be made by picking up a leaflet in-store, calling the helpline on 01299 382 074 or visiting www.sainsburys.co.uk/paralympictorchrelay.

There are 100 places available. They will be chosen to carry the Paralympic Flame on the 24-hour relay from Stoke Mandeville in Buckinghamshire to the Olympic Park in Stratford, east London, where the Flame will be used to officially open the Games. The relay will take place overnight from August 28/29.

Cannock store manager Rob Hillman said: "This is a great opportunity for our customers in Cannock to get involved in the build up to the Paralympic Games."

"To have the opportunity of carrying the Paralympic Flame would be a great honour for an individual or team from Cannock."

Councillor Maryon said the works would mean disruption through the summer, but said it would be worth it in the long run.

He said: "It is going to mean stop-go boards and temporary traffic lights but you can't make an omelette without breaking any eggs."

"Investing now makes real financial sense to avoid more costly repairs later on, but it is also important to have a top class transport network for the county economy to thrive and residents to get good jobs."

"The best way to stop potholes developing is to have a perfect road surface that doesn't allow water in. This work will benefit people using the roads 15 or 20 years from now."

Issue

Councillor Maryon said maintaining the quality of the roads was "the big issue" for residents and those working in the area.

The Conservative-led county council has spent £30m repairing pothole-ridden routes since taking power in June 2009.

If approved as expected at a meeting on February 1, work could start in April.

Most will be carried out over the summer.

Under provisional proposals School Road and School Close, Norton Canes, and Woodland Close, Pye Green, will be resurfaced.

The council claims there are fewer than 700 potholes along 4,000 miles of road in Staffordshire.

Viennetta waltzes off Jacquie's menu

Then and now – Jacquie Wittstock, Walsall Council benefits officer and classical music fan, has shed 11stone

A CLASSICAL music fan is dancing to a new tune after shedding 11 stone in just 16 months.

Jacquie Wittstock always loved going to concerts, but weighing 24st, she dreaded having to squeeze her size 34 body into her seat.

After one too many uncomfortable evenings, and a difficult flight to Australia, the Walsall Council worker finally decided that enough was enough and embarked on a diet.

The 47-year-old from Burntwood can now sink her size 12 figure into theatre seats with ease. Benefits officer

Jacquie said her weight ballooned after binges on crisps, chocolate and creamy milkshakes.

"People don't realise how miserable it is to be very overweight – you avoid going out because you will struggle to fit through the doors of the public toilets," said Jacquie, now 13st.

"I love classical music but when I went to Symphony Hall, in Birmingham, I would feel sorry for the people sitting next to me."

"I knew that when they saw me approaching to sit next to them their heart must have dropped to their toes and I would struggle to fit into the seats."

Visiting her sister in Australia was an ordeal as she felt she was taking up too much room on the plane.

In October 2010 Jacquie took the plunge and joined WeightWatchers at Burntwood Community Centre, eating salads, fresh fish and fruit. And she slimmed down to a size 18 she started doing regular exercise and entered the Race for Life.

Jacquie now enjoys running, can swim 100 lengths in 53 minutes, and is training for the triathlon.

Inquiry vow as suspect escapes

A FULL Government inquiry is to take place into how suspected killer John Anslow was able to escape.

Secretary of State for Justice Kenneth Clarke described the raid outside HMP Hewell Grange as a "well-orchestrated armed ambush".

Anslow, who is charged with the murder of Burntwood father-of-two Richard Deakin, escaped from a prison van at 8.20am on Monday (January 23).

A £10,000 reward has been put up for information leading to his capture. The prison van the 31-year-old was traveling in was forced to a halt by a gang of masked men driving a high-powered silver Volkswagen Scirocco in front of it.

They smashed the windows of the van with sledgehammers and punched the driver in the face, before springing Anslow from the back. They then sped off before switching to a silver Mercedes.

The prisoner, from Tipton, is the first Category A inmate to escape from custody in almost two decades.

Secretary of State for Justice Kenneth Clarke said: "This was a serious criminal incident involving a well-orchestrated armed ambush. The first priority is to ensure that this man is quickly found and arrested. I have ordered a full inquiry into how this happened, including the security categorisation and management of the prisoner, so that we can learn lessons for the future."

The scene of the prison van breakout

Victim Richard Deakin, aged 27

Armed police hunting the murder suspect raided five homes in Tipton on Monday night and arrested a 44-year-old man in connection with the escape.

Manhunt

All airports and railways stations have been put on alert with Anslow - nicknamed Skitz - now at the centre of an international manhunt.

Anslow, who is one of five men charged with the murder of Chasetown man Mr Deakin, was on his way to Stafford Crown Court when he was sprung from the van.

Justice Secretary Clarke has ordered an inquiry after it emerged the suspected killer was with other inmates in a van run by a private contractor instead of a high-security prison service van with a police escort.

Category A status is reserved for those prisoners whose escape would be highly dangerous to the public, police or security - and for whom the aim is to make escape impossible.

Richard Deakin was shot twice at his family home in Meadway Street at 8.10am on July 5, 2010.

The 27-year-old's fiancée Megan and their daughters Ellie and Jessica were out at the time. Also charged with his murder are Bilston men Andrew Hill, 49, Darryl Dickens, 33, and David Harrison, 62, and 31-year-old Leigh Astbury from Wolverhampton.

Developers speak out as play area bid turfed out

Get up close and personal

Development officer Hilary Foxley with the exhibition called Up Close and Personal at Chasewater Innovation Centre

AN AMATEUR photographer has unveiled an exhibition of photos she took using a microscope camera.

Charlotte Roberts from Brewood is behind the exhibition called Up Close and Personal, at Chasewater Innovation Centre. It runs until February 4

Development officer at the Pool Road centre Hilary Foxley said the 30 photos were of everyday items, but zoomed in to 400 times the usual perspective.

These include a tea bag and a dog's eye and the public has to work out what the pictures show.

She said: "The idea is that it's everyday things in life that we look at but don't look very closely at. The display has turned out really well."

THE developers behind a controversial play area that has to be taken away say they are disappointed with the decision.

Cannock Chase District Council's planning committee ruled the play site at the heart of the Park Farm residential estate, between Peregrine Way and Pheasant Way, must go. They heard from neighbouring householders how youths used the area for anti-social behaviour and ruled that the site caused too much trouble for local residents.

Since the meeting some people living by the site said they did not know what all the fuss was about.

Tim Brickley, technical director for Persimmon Homes West Midlands said he was disappointed with the council's decision and would be speaking to planning chiefs about what could be done to keep everyone involved happy.

He said: "We are disappointed that Cannock Chase Council has refused the retrospective planning permission for the play area at Park Farm Estate and will be in further discussions with them regarding the site."

"Persimmon Homes continues to work closely with the council and the local community to seek a satisfactory conclusion for all concerned."

Objector Neil Owens, who lives in Peregrine Way, told the council 33 residents had signed a petition saying the play area made their lives hell, and there were 34 letters of objection. Mr Owens said residents were woken by people singing and drinking.

Hawks Green councillor John Bernard also said footballs hitting a gate made people's lives a misery.

Prompt start for ramble

THE Chase & District Ramblers are embarking on a nine-mile moderate walk on Cannock Chase this Sunday (January 29). Meet at Hednesford rail station car park, in Anglesey Street, for a prompt 9am departure. Call walk leader Barry on 01543 684254 for more information.

Confusion over site for homes proposal

I WAS surprised and concerned to read about the proposed development of the Skelly/Pye Green Valley.

Unless there are two identical developments, ie 700 houses, etc, the development is actually proposed on farmland west of Pye Green Road, between Limepit Lane and Pye Green corner on the farm land behind the cattery and Fuchsia World up to the aerials and Cannock Chase, planning ref is CH/11/0395.

Although I objected to the plans to build on the Skelly surely it would be better to finish and sell that development before ripping up more virgin land to the detriment of more wildlife. All of this will be lost and the 'road to nowhere' on the Skelly will still lead nowhere.

If I were cynical I would say the developers are relying on the confusion between the two sites to reduce the number of objections.

Who was consulted on leisure plan?

IN REPLY to Tony McGovern (letters, January 12), we all know that budgets have been cut but I don't think the local people would be happy if you cut all that from the leisure budget.

The council has over the last few years spent billions of taxpayers' money on refurbishing leisure centres and according to the information you have provided are not getting anything back from it. You state that we subsidise the leisure services by £1.9m and we will save £540,000 which would work out to 36 workers on £15,000 a year. You also state that WLCT would invest £2m over the period and that they can claim the £200,000 business rates paid each year by the taxpayers for the leisure facilities. I would presume that these taxes still get paid by the council after the handover and is it not a coincidence that if you take £200,000 over 10 years it comes to £2m which is what WLCT is supposed to be investing? You also state that "the two leisure centres, museum and theatre buildings remain in council ownership and are leased to WLCT for the contract period" but you failed to say how much they are paying for the leasing of these. You stated that the council is required to undertake public consultation yet you have not said who these people were that you consulted with?

Town is dead and in need of new life

I READ the story on the protest for the McDonald's in Rugeley by the Landor Society and I think this is just another excuse not to bring McDonald's to Rugeley saying it will rip apart plans to breathe new life into the town. The town needs a life before you can rip it apart.

A lot of people from Rugeley will tell you the same as me - that the town is dead. If we want to go shopping you go out of town to somewhere with a lot of good shops. Bringing McDonald's to Rugeley will generate jobs and new trade.

Also, to ask for a financial contribution if the proposal goes ahead, is to my mind like saying you can have it as long as you grease our palms with silver.

As for Staffordshire County Council wanting permission refused on highway issues is beyond belief. The proposed site is in the middle of an industrial estate with a enormous factory which was built several years ago and stood empty until the end of last year when Amazon took it over.

Wanting 'penny and bun'

LIKE errant teenagers seeking freedom from parental control, without fiscal responsibility, Scottish Nationalists have signalled their intention to seek a mandate for self governance outside the structure of the UK.

The Scottish people, mindful of the massive 'Sassenach' financial contribution fostering their idiosyncratic obsession with complimentary services, support nationalism within the UK. In short, wanting "the penny and the bun".

UK taxpayers recognising the burden imposed upon them in funding Scotland's largesse, should be demanding a referendum to determine whether to continue with support for a nation so vehemently opposed to all those resident south of the border.

Treading on eggshells

WE would like to know if the letters from Messrs Pearson, Lovell and Moody have been written due to a political bias. They seem very passionate about destroying the career of the best, hard working, hands-on MPs we have had. We wonder if their behaviour has always been impeccable.

We are sure Mr Burley deeply regrets what happened, but it seems that our sense of humour is being eroded all the time. Do we have to tread on eggshells in these PC times? Their proposed punishment for this indiscretion is like taking a sledgehammer to crack a nut.

Nobody's perfect

ON reading the letter in the Chronicle from Steve Brown (January 5) regarding our MP being one of the most focused and dedicated, I totally agree.

You can do a thousand good things, but the minute you make one silly mistake people are after your blood. Give our MP a break, he is only human. He has probably learned from his mistake with out people going on about it. No one is 100 per cent perfect.

JUNE LANGLEY

MP certainly 'focused'

SO your correspondent Steve Brown believes Aidan Burley, the Chase MP to be 'focused' and 'dedicated'.

He was certainly 'focused' and 'dedicated' when he attended a Nazi-themed party and certainly when he claimed nearly £200,00 in expenses for one year on top of his salary of taxpayers' money at the same time a voting for Government cuts for the rest of us.

Kelly's eye on No 1 spot in Teen Queen contest

Hitting the catwalk – Kelly Taylor, aged 15, from Burntwood, is through to the Miss Teen Queen finals

A BURNTWOOD schoolgirl is looking for local support in her bid to become Miss Teen Queen UK.

Kelly Taylor, aged 15, is in the final stages of the competition and needs the public to help in her final push for success. The Year 11 Chase Terrace Technology College pupil was scouted while attending the Clothes Show Live in Birmingham last month. Kelly is up against 49 other teenage girls from across the country. The two girls with the most text votes will go through to the finals in September.

Her mother Tracy Taylor said: "We are relying on public votes and the two girls from the website with the most votes get to go to the finals in London. We have until 11.30pm on January 31 to get as many votes as we possibly can. To vote for Kelly text 'TQ22' to 81319 or call 0900 593 8000 and give the two digit number for Kelly which is 22. Noel George in action for Hednesford

Head shot of Noel George

Teddy Peers lines up for the Wolves squad of 1914/15

Former Pitmen keeper Tom Picken

FA Cup hero Scott Cooksey

Keepers ensure club's history is in safe hands

CLUB historian Dave Shaw looks at Hednesford Town players that went onto the football league.

Goalkeepers kick off this first in a new series.

Future Welsh international Teddy Peers was born in 1886 and as a teenager won Welsh Amateur Cup and Cheshire League titles.

With his trademark flat cap, Teddy joined Wolves in 1911 and his performances led to a run of 71 consecutive first-team outings.

Peers moved to Hednesford in 1922, staying for six-months before a big-money move to Port Vale.

During two seasons he won four Welsh International caps to go with the eight he gained at Wolves and moved back to Keys Park in 1923, retiring three years later.

Noel George made his debut for Wolves in February 1921 following his move from Hednesford. In the next three months he played six FA Cup games including the final against Spurs at Stamford Bridge.

MEMORY LANE

By Dave Shaw

George played 242 senior games at Molineux, keeping 23 clean sheets in the 1924-25 season. He was taken ill during a defeat at Bristol City in 1927 and was later diagnosed with a terminal illness. He passed away in his sleep in Lichfield Infirmary in October 1929.

Walter Hayes was another Pitmen keeper to move to Wolves, but Peers kept him out of the first-team and in 1914/15 he was transferred to Preston. The outbreak of WWI virtually put an end to his league career. Tom Picken joined Hednesford aged 15 and would go on to play for West Brom for five years, winning a junior international cap. He returned to Hednesford in 1909 to help the club win the Birmingham Combination.

Arthur Talbot took over in goal from Arthur 'Natter' Webster in 1892 before making five appearances for Woolwich Arsenal.

The highlight of Scott Cooksey's time at Hednesford following his move from Peterborough was the 1996/97 run to the fourth round of the FA Cup.

Shrewsbury Town beat several league clubs to his signature in 1998. After joining Hereford, Cooksey picked up a wrist injury which became infected and progressed into a life-threatening blood disorder. He retired in 2002 and is now head of PE at a Birmingham school.

Anyone with information or photographs about former players can call 01543 491713.

Club will mark 25th birthday

Members treated to an old film show

HAYES GREEN WI

THE January meeting began with a New Year's greeting from president Sandy Hobbs.

There were apologies for absences Elaine Smith read November's minutes and Rosemary Larkin gave her treasurer's report.

Mrs Hobbs thanked everyone involved in a very enjoyable Christmas party.

There was a lovely selection of food, the table arrangements were beautiful, and the competition - fancy dress in a stage musical character showed a great deal of ingenuity.

Ted Vickers sang a medley of songs from the shows, ably assisted by his wife who operated the PA system.

After the refreshments it was time for Secret Santa and the raffle. Mr Vickers then judged the fancy dress competition and the winner was Janet as Thoroughly Modern Millie.

The evening concluded with the singing of carols and Christmas melodies.

The Christmas meal at the Plough and Harrow, Hednesford was a great success.

After many thoughts and ideas, a draft programme for 2013 was agreed upon.

This year will be the 25th anniversary of Hayes Green WI and this event was also discussed, together with the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

The competition, "A Pair of Gloves" was won by Moira. Irene won the raffle.

Dick Powell in a still from 42nd Street - shown as part of a compilation of films

THE first meeting after the Christmas break was very entertaining as John Coley showed films from the 1930s, 40s and 50s.

The black and white films included Footlight Parade starring Dick Powell and Flying Down to Rio with Fred Astaire.

There was an informative film on the life of Churchill and the important role he played during the War, followed by a short film of people performing various stunts.

The next 'short' was an example of The Gaumont British News, entitled 50 Royal Years. Members were then treated to another Fred Astaire musical, ending with the National Anthem. Mr Coley has many of these old films. Call him on 07792 252538. Members spoke of the excellent Christmas meal at The Terrace and £82.47 was raised for Air Ambulance which will be rounded up to £100. Dils welcomed three new members.

The next meeting is on February 2

Informative St John talk

AT THE Guild's Christmas party, the committee put on a musical evening, consisting of songs, monologues and comedy sketches.

A sum of £50 was collected in lieu of members sending Christmas cards. The money will be donated to Katharine House Hospice, Stafford.

Chairman Hilda Hathaway welcomed members to the Guild's first meeting of 2012 on January 17.

Jean Page submitted two items for the craft exhibition 2011 and in received gold and silver awards.

Outings secretary Lesley Wilkes is arranging a trip to see South Pacific in Birmingham on February 13.

Wendy Hayward gave a very informative talk on her work with St John Ambulance. Sue Evans presented a cheque to the service and gave the vote of thanks.

On February 21 Margaret Smallman will talk about 'Growing up in a corner shop'.

PM stays tight-lipped over stag party probe

THE Prime Minister has refused to answer questions regarding investigations into a Nazi-themed party attended by Cannock's MP.

David Cameron told Dudley North Labour MP Ian Austin that the investigation into Cannock Chase's Aidan Burley was "a matter for the Conservative party".

Labour MP Mr Austin asked the Prime Minister when he expected an investigation to report to him and whether a copy would be made available in the House of Commons Library.

Mr Burley is facing a criminal investigation after French authorities confirmed they were probing the conduct of him and 12 of his friends at the Nazi-themed stag party in the Alps. The groom was pictured dressed in an SS uniform.

Fashioning a fundraiser

Beauty queen Leela Hanson chooses outfits for the charity fashion show in Cannock

A TEENAGE beauty queen from Burntwood is using her glamour title to raise funds for a local charity.

Leela Hanson won Miss Teen Staffordshire Galaxy 2011, and is now organising a fashion show for the Newlife Foundation in Cannock. The 17-year-old, who lifted the title last June, will model clothes from the charity's large store in Hemlock Way, Hawks Green.

She said: "I wanted to put my title to good use and help people who need it. I am studying dance at Walsall College and ultimately want to be a dancer but I know that many children don't get the opportunities I have."

The event is next Tuesday, January 31 at Chase Terrace Technical College. Proceeds will go to Newlife and help buy equipment for local disabled and terminally ill children.

Sixth formers will also act as models with all clothes modelled on the night available to buy.

Tickets for the show are on sale from the college in Bridge Cross Road at £2 each.

Newlife's fundraising manager Nora Smith said: "We are very grateful to Leela."

College campus set for revamp of £6m

A £6M revamp is to take place at a Cannock college that houses thousands of students. A new glass-roofed atrium forms part of the plans by South Staffordshire College.

The refurbishment at the Cannock campus, at The Green, will cost around £4m with an additional £2m grant from the Government's Skills Funding Agency.

Redevelopment work is due to get under way in the summer, but college bosses have not yet revealed fully what the new college building will look like and where the majority of the money will be spent.

Director of commercial operations Michelle Dowse said: "Major changes to what was originally a mining college include both structural and architectural improvements, the net result of which will be a more welcoming, stimulating and open environment."

Councillor Gordon Alcott, economic development and planning portfolio leader at Cannock Chase Council, said: "We are delighted that the college has now received grant funding."

"This decision is a welcome boost to education and employment prospects in our district."

Group hunts performers

A NON-PROFIT entertainment company is looking to recruit new performers at an open evening in Cannock.

Creativz is looking to take on people for productions this year, and will hold the event at Bank Bar and Lounge, in Wolverhampton Road, on February 6 at 7.30pm.

Performers of any discipline are invited to attend, including singers. Call Daniel Prosser on 07930 414991 for more details.

CHRONICLE readers have helped to shed light on an old photograph belonging to Huntington woman Linda Hooper. Mrs Hooper came across the picture, dated 1947 and believed to be of Huntington Bowls Club, while researching her family tree. Little else was known of the snapshot, which appeared in the January 13 edition of The Chronicle and Mrs Hooper appealed for help in identifying some of those in the line-up. The pictures has been identified as that of the Littleton Arms Bowling team and many of the players' names are now known.

Linda's husband James said: "We would you say thank you to all the people who phoned and helped identify the people on the photo. A special thanks to Mrs Pearse, nee Cooper and also to Mr Clarry Johnson."

School extension to start

AN EXTENSION to a Rugeley school will get under way within weeks. The project at Etching Hill Primary was due to start in September.

Two new classrooms, toilets and extra car parking will be created under plans lodged with Cannock Chase Council.

A mobile building which has been on site since the early 1970s will be torn down, creating five extra parking spaces. The work was stalled when it was decided to slightly adapt the plans and move the new building over by a few feet.

Plans are out to tender and project architect David Priest said work was likely to start in February or March. He said the contractors would need to be on the school site as soon as possible.

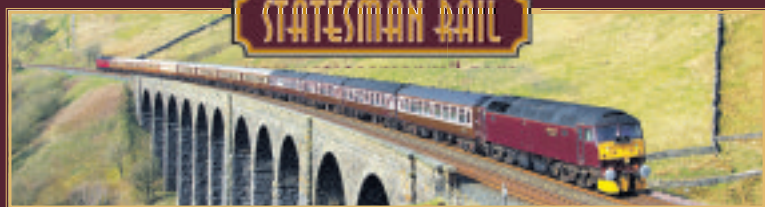

The new single storey building is planned to be 66ft long, 28ft wide, and 15ft high.

The current school, in Penk Drive

North, was built in 1973 and is partly two storey. The new building should contrast with the existing structure.

The plans state: "The new building will contrast with the existing in that it will have a pitched roof with grey coloured standing seam metal finish and the walls will be clad in western red cedar or Siberian larch timber planks."

The school wants to use some of the new building to form a new play area.

Award is just deserts for service and fare

Flames restaurant, Mill Street, Penkridge

MORE than 1,000 invited guests saw staff from a Penkridge restaurant lift a coveted title.

Daybreak host Tasmin Khan and MP Rushanara Ali – the first Bangladeshi to sit in the House of Commons – were among the dignitaries as Kauser Hussain, from Flames, in Mill Street, took the Chef of the Year at the Bangladeshi Caterers' Association awards. The ceremony took place at the Park Plaza hotel in Westminster.

Formerly William Harding's House, Flames has been established since the early 2000s, so the award is long-overdue. The eatery beat off competition from restaurants in nine other regions to land the prize, though manager Shahin Hussain said he was surprised that Flames was chosen as the winner.

"It was a shock," he said. "We just thought we'd been invited to see the ceremony. We really didn't expect it."

The honour followed mystery visits by judges to the building, which has a history going back to the 1600s. And, though it may have been a shock to the staff, Flames' customers will argue it is well-deserved.

My partner and I took in the restaurant, which caters for more than 85 diners, and discovered that the award is just deserts for its food and service.

On a busy midweek night, we found the staff charming and more than happy to advise on what to choose from the vast menu. Sharon was tempted by the jaipuri chicken, which came with mushrooms and served in a thick masala sauce. It came highly recommended – and it did not disappoint. My own fish dish was equally tasty, and there was no amount spared.

We skipped the pudding, though there was a fair selection. Likewise with the drinks, as Flames is licensed to serve alcohol.

Menu options include the traditional balti, dhansak, bhuna and sagwala dishes, together with low calorie options, vegetarian dishes, chef's specialities and Flames recommendations. Flames is open seven days a week, including Bank Holidays, from 5.30pm. Call 01785 712955. MARK SHIPP

Birdwatching hour appeal from RSPB

THE RSPB is asking Staffordshire people to take up bird watching this weekend. Bosses want a picture of how garden birds are faring in a winter of fluctuating temperatures. Sarah Houghton, of the RSPB, said: "The last few months have been anything but predictable so it will be interesting to see what kinds of birds people are seeing this weekend, and in what numbers."

The RSPB is asking people to pick an hour this weekend to record the birds they see and send in their results. Sarah said: "We want to know what you see, whether it's a hundred birds or two birds, regardless of whether this is typical for your garden."

Visit www.rspb.org.uk/birdwatch to take part.

Charlotte finds winning perm to grab place in trophy team

Charlotte Roberts, aged 18, from Cheslyn Hay, who has picked up a hairdressing award

A HAIRDRESSER from Cheslyn Hay will jet off to picturesque Prague, the Czech capital, within the next few weeks after being picked out as a cut above at a national competition.

By Mark Mudie

Eighteen-year-old Charlotte Roberts, who launched her career after leaving school two years ago, was one of six stylists who wowed judges at the Clynol Protege finals in London. Charlotte, who works at VIP Hair, in Market Street, Penkridge, will head to the Czech Republic next month on the first of a series of high-profile trips.

Completed

The former Cheslyn High School pupil will also cut at designer photo shoots and star in industry magazines as a result of her success. Thirty hairdressers from across the UK took to the stage in London where they had one hour to craft a style before explaining their work to an elite panel of distinguished judges.

VIP director Vanessa Horrocks, aged 37, is training Charlotte to help her manage the Penkridge salon and is delighted for her protege.

She said: "I'm really proud of her. It's such a fantastic achievement to get through."

"We have sent people down before but no one has ever got this far."

Since joining the salon from school Charlotte has completed her NVQ Level 2 and is pursuing her NVQ Level 3.

VIP also has a salon in Landywood Lane, Cheslyn Hay.

Wheels in motion for annual bike ride

CYCLISTS across the Chase are saddling up for the third annual Tour de Nock this Sunday (January 29). Organisers Cycle Shack Events promise it will be bigger and better than before.

There are routes of 60, 40 and 15 miles, with improvements this year including a feed station at around 30 miles, additional signage and an online registration service.

The Hibbs Lupus Trust will benefit from the proceeds. The start and finish point is Hayes Green Community Centre, in Hayes Way. Signing-on and on-the-day registration starts at 9am with the staggered starts from 10. Cost is £7.50 in advance at www.tourdenock.co.uk or £9 on the day.

New chapter to get under way at village library

Library supervisor Evelyn Slater packs up all the books at Cheslyn Hay Library, which is on the move

THOUSANDS of books are being moved from Cheslyn Hay Library to the parish hall. Council bosses hope the relocation will lead to a boost in numbers using the service.

Readers are deserting the current building in High Street and bosses believe relocating to a busier site will bolster user numbers. A similar plan in Great Wyrley four years ago sent membership soaring by 40 per cent in six months.

Three members of staff this week began the task of packing 6,000 books into 230 crates.

A new extension has been built by Staffordshire county council at the village hall in Pinfold Lane to accommodate the library. The hall will be closed until February 6 while the move is under way.

Mobile library services will be available on January

By Marion Brennan

30 and 31 and February 2. Users will not be charged for books that become overdue during the closure period.

County councillor Pat Corfield, cabinet member for communities, said: "It is our priority to maintain public libraries in Staffordshire. In Cheslyn Hay, the library is not just being maintained but is being enhanced and improved by being relocated to the village hub."

In Great Wyrley, the library moved in March 2008 to a shop unit in Quinton Court on Wardles Lane.

Don't let winter put hair in shade

Another dull hair day? Absolutely not! Hair Colour Doctor Lisa Shepherd says "while we might not feel full of the joys of spring just yet, thankfully modern hair care comes to our rescue."

And to give you a spring lift the Chronicles have teamed up with the Lisa team to offer readers the chance of a bit of pre-Valentine pampering.

Lisa and her award-winning team are offering a winner and friend the chance to go to one of the Lisa Shepherd salons at Wombourne, Sutton Coldfield or Kidderminster for the ultimate make-over.

The prize includes a full cut, colour and style make-over in the salon complete with an indulgent hair ritual and any hair advice you need. To keep your new style looking stunning the winner will receive a bumper goody bag of Clynol's salon exclusive products to recreate that salon look at home.

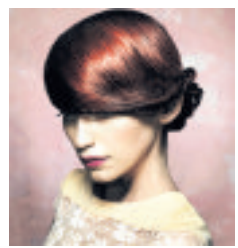

Favourites

Lisa is also offering five runner-up prizes of Clynol goodie bags worth £50 including all you need for gorgeous hair this Valentine's Day. (These must be collected from the winner's nearest Lisa Shepherd salon).

If you are one of the 80 per cent of British women that have some form of colour on your hair then make certain you choose enriched-colour formulas that pack in nutrients and seal the cuticle, locking in pigment and essential moisture.

Lisa's winter favourites are the rich nut and chocolate shades, the gentle colour formulas available today leave a glossy shine. If you don't want to choose colour then a clear gloss at the backwash over natural hair adds iridescence.

Winter can be harsh on hair - moving from the cold into centrally-heated homes and offices causes the cuticle to lift and leak moisture, making it dull and lifeless. Invest in repairing leave-in products that can actually rebuild the foundation of your hair, back it up with a regular use of lightweight rinse-off treatments, add sparkle with a shine spray and you have the makings of luminous shine whatever the weather's doing.

Glossy and colour-enriched rich hair will enhance any style

To tame tearaway hair and ensure that you are giving every strand a little winter coat of enriching Keratin then try the lasting blowdry Keratin smoothing treatment. It locks in moisture, holds style and leaves your hair looking glossy for up to three months.

This season trend-wise we are definitely seeing the return of mirror glass shine taking possible grunge to high octane glamour. Colours merge from dark and delicious to lighter more vibrant tones, the shades have also moved on with cool browns being swapped out for cocoas and bronze and treacle and honey tones overtaken by darkest, deepest gold.

"On the whole the look is far more expensive. It's more French Riviera than East Side NYC and every strand will be glazed to a glossy finish and dressed to perfection," says Lisa.

"The mega-trend of full head blondes continues and it's the twist of 'brighter blonde that'll make it of the moment'.

Style-wise there are two ways to go, either the full-on glamour (think big blowdries) or the Hollywood grunge vibe (think Mary-Kate and Ashley Olsen).

To stand a chance of winning simply answer the following question.
What is the name of Lisa's exclusive salon products?

Send your answer on a postcard with your name, address and contact number (only one entry per household) to Hair Competition, Chronicle series (editorial), 51-53 Queen Street, Wolverhampton, WV1 1ES. Closing date: Thursday, February 2. Usual rules apply. Editor's decision is final.

Link-up helping to combat crime

COUNCIL bosses believe its link with police and other partners is helping to make the Cannock Chase district a safer place to live.

The district council has teamed up with Staffordshire Police, the fire and rescue service and South Staffordshire Primary Care Trust to form the Chase Community Partnership. Other key voluntary and private sector representatives are also involved, with the aims being to increase economic opportunities and to improve health and community safety.

Since the partnership was formed, there has been a reduction in alcohol-related and domestic violence, while an initiative to clamp down on anti-social behaviour, called Operation Matrix, was hailed a success.

Councillor George Adamson, Council leader and chairman of Chase Community Safety Partnership, said: "I am extremely pleased to be part of such a strong partnership. "By bringing together the commitment, resources and creativity of our partners, we will collectively improve the quality of life for local people living in Cannock Chase."

"We believe our commitment to working in partnership not only makes us a strong employer, but also helps us to better serve our local communities."

Enjoy

Chief Inspector Carl Ratcliffe, Commander of Cannock Chase District Local Policing Team, said: "Our focus is to keep the district of Cannock Chase a safe place for all to enjoy. "By working in partnership it enables us to reassure local residents and reduce crime and anti-social behaviour even further".

A full copy of the partnership's Community Strategy can be found at the council's website at www.cannockchasedc.gov.uk/partnerships or by calling Kerry Wright, senior partnerships officer on 01543 464368.

Outstanding Hat-trick for Hednesford Nursery School

Hednesford Nursery School is pleased to report that in September 2011, it received its third consecutive Outstanding Ofsted with Grade 1 in every area. Headteacher Miss Christine Wood said: "To get Outstanding three times is a wonderful achievement and a great credit to the School and all concerned."

The Ofsted report said: "Hednesford Nursery School is an Outstanding School", while the inspector found that the typical viewpoint of parents was: "This is such an outstandingly, wonderful place for children to learn."

In particular, the report recognises that children's achievement is excellent, and most children leave the Nursery School with well-above average levels of attainment. Behaviour was found to be excellent and all children feel extremely safe.

The report also found that the quality of teaching is outstanding. The inspector felt that this was a warm and friendly school, providing excellent levels of care, guidance and support.

The report recognised that the "headteacher provides outstanding leadership and that she is extremely well supported by the staff and governing body."

Overall, the Inspector found that the children really benefit from their time at Hednesford Nursery School and get off to a flying start to their education.

Enquiries and visits are welcome.

Strong partnerships with local employers

SINCE its official opening in September 2011, learning at the Black Country University Technical College (UTC) has been in full swing, with students taking part in many exciting activities.

So far, students have completed a project with internationally recognised company, Siemens; were visited by young engineers to tackle a space buggy challenge; have signed up for a national competition run by Young Enterprise; built high flying sky rockets and joined a trip to the Birmingham Think Tank to take part in DNA testing and animation workshops.

Students also took part in a company sponsored project through Houghton Design, where they had to put their creative caps on and design a concept for a new product.

Skills

Chris Hilton, principal designate of the Black Country UTC, said: "Learning at the Black Country UTC is now well underway and students have enjoyed taking part in varied and exciting activities."

The Black Country UTC provides students with an inspirational learning environment. Our young people will be successful, make a positive contribution to society, have entrepreneurial skills and meet the needs of employers in the West Midlands.

The new Black Country University Technical College is one of the first of a new breed of schools across the country, offering 14-19 year olds the opportunity to gain the qualifications and skills required for an exciting and rewarding career in Science and Engineering.

The specialist college delivers the 'best of both worlds', combining academic curriculum with high quality technical education. Further to its national recognition, the UTC is supported by lead sponsor, Walsall College and co-sponsor, University of Wolverhampton, as well as receiving the full backing of Walsall Council.

The curriculum and facilities at the Black Country UTC have been developed using the school's strong partnerships with local employers. All courses are actively shaped by world renowned employers, such as Siemens, ZF Lemforder and Finning along with other experienced local businesses.

The Black Country UTC also utilises its partnership with Walsall College by offering Engineering Apprenticeships at both levels 2 and 3.

To ensure travel to and from the Black Country UTC is as easy as possible for students, the UTC is now working with Walsall Community Transport to run a transport system.

There are currently three routes, with the buses collecting students from various pick up points, including Alumwell, Walsall, Leamore, Brownhills, Shelfield, Blakenall, Bloxwich, Wolverhampton and Wednesfield.

If your child is interested in studying at the UTC, there is an open college event on Saturday, January 28, from 10am to 2pm.

Telephone 01922 470763 or email office@blackcountryutc.co.uk to book your place.

Amelia has stomach for belly dance class

A BELLY dancing teenager from Great Wyrley is launching a bold new venture which she hopes will blossom into a full-time career. Amelia Edwards is introducing weekly classes at the Longford House in Watling Street, Cannock, and plans to run more £5 sessions if they prove popular.

The 18-year-old, of Landywood Lane, will shimmy and shake from 7.30pm-8.30pm every Wednesday. Amelia, a former student at Cheslyn Hay Sport & Community High School, said: "I have been belly dancing for five years so thought it would be a good idea to do a class."

Weight loss wings in

Carol Garrington, Passionate Media, financial adviser Alison Renton-Cooper, Michelle Lucas, Chase Chamber of Commerce and Karen Stokes, Free Spirit (UK) Ltd

A NETWORKING group used to making pounds is now hoping to lose a few.

Independent networking group Wings has launched its weight-loss campaign at the Roman Way Hotel, in Watling Street, Cannock. It will raise money for Compton Hospice and Breast Cancer UK.

Members, who voted unanimously to have weight loss as their personal goals for the year within the group, will have a weigh-in at each meeting, on the first and third Friday of each month, when each will donate £1.

The group of businesswomen is also setting up a Just Giving page, so that friends and family can sponsor each member, and give them a greater incentive.

D-day for groups as cuts loom in council rates aid

SIX community groups are to learn whether they will lose out on thousands of pounds in rate relief. The organisations, based in Cannock and Rugeley, will find out next week

By Marion Brennan

Cannock Chase Council is meeting on Tuesday (January 31) to decide how to make £6,000 cuts in the rate relief budget. Applications have been received from five charities and a school.

Chadsmoor Progressive Working Men's Club has also applied for rate relief at a higher level than it receives.

Framework

A letter from the club secretary says: "We have been making a loss over the last few years and we are struggling to keep the club going."

The authority has agreed to cut discretionary rate relief to those receiving 65 per cent to 50 per cent and to those granted 15 per cent to 10 per cent.

Organisations receiving seven per cent top-up rate relief will see their funds reduced to five per cent. The cuts will be brought in on April 1.

Cannock's rate relief committee has been told to be mindful of the new framework when considering new applications.

On Tuesday it will decide on a request from Staffordshire University Academy, the former Blake Valley Technology College in Marston Road, Hednesford, for up to £3,435 in rates aid.

Other applications have been received for lesser amounts from Barnardo's, in Rugeley, Age UK in Hednesford, the West Chadsmoor Family Centre in Cannock, the Krizevak Project, in Hednesford, and the Bangladesh Education and Development Foundation in Cannock.

PenkrIDGE

IN 958 AD, Edgar, King of the Mercians, was recorded as calling a village near Cannock "that famous place of PenkrIDGE". At that time the village stood on its present site, with a Saxon-style church on the site of the current church. When King Edgar was made monarch of England in 959 AD, he made PenkrIDGE his capital. As well as the church, the village had a number of well-used roads converging on it and was used by travellers as a staging post.

The name of a crossing place over the River Penk at Cuttlestone gave its name to the Cuttlestone Hundred - formed during the reign of Alfred the Great (870-901). Originally a ford, the bridge is now the means of crossing the river. Markets also paid an important part in village life, with the first charter being granted to Henry le Blund in 1244. PenkrIDGE then became known for its sale of horses. In 1522 it was described as "a small village famous for its horsefair". In the toll book records of 1597, a total of 436 horses are recorded as being sold at a single fair. The play area off Bellbrook is now called Horsefair. By the late 1600s the village had its own racecourse off Levedale Road. The Duke of Rutland put up the £1 sum on "staking the plate", and races were held there until 1834. The village was split in two in the 1930s with the opening of the new A449, while two prisoner-of-war camps were established in the village during the Second World War, at Primrose Park on Teddesley Road and at Teddesley Park. Nowadays, the market town has a population of more than 7,500 and is home the PenkrIDGE Heritage Centre, which opened up at the site of the Grade II listed Old Gaol between Bellbrook and Market Place.

MP is in support of apprentice scheme

CANNOCK Chase MP Aidan Burley is backing an apprentice scheme designed to create youth employment in the county.

He attended an event organised by Hednesford training specialists, SSC Learning to see their social media marketing apprenticeship. The programme involves businesses taking on 16 to 24-year-olds to handle their digital marketing, promoting firms through social media sites and blogging. The apprentices receive training and support from media specialists, Passionate Media.

SSC is interested in signing up more firms at the next event tomorrow (Friday) at the Roman Way Hotel, Cannock from noon until 2pm.

Jack's solo album

Cannock musician Jack Chapman, aged 30

YEARS of hard work has paid off for a musician who has released his first album.

Jack Chapman, of Cannock, has recorded and produced album My Achilles Heel under his own Inglepingle record label.

The 30-year-old, of Elmwood Close, started working on the project six years ago.

Recording the 12 tracks for the indie-sounding album has involved him playing 18 instruments and countless hours of work.

He started playing guitar in the late 1990s and began to compose and record songs in his bedroom. He formed a band called Mint and some members of the group later relaunched themselves as covers band, The Great Train Robbers, with Jack playing lead guitar.

He has recorded more than 100 songs while holding down a job teaching sports science at Birmingham Metropolitan College, in Sutton Coldfield.

Jack said: "I sang all the vocals, I play 18 different instruments on it and I've set up my own record label."

"I've spent six years recording more than 100 songs and the best ones have made it on to the album. I'm very pleased with it."

Health club & spa is going from strength to strength

The Chase Health Club & Spa, at Pottal Pool, boasts a state-of-the-art gym with more than 70 pieces of kit

A resort for the whole family is being created at the Chase Health Club & Spa, says operations director Bryan Davies. A HEALTH spa that created 25 jobs when it opened last year is going from strength to strength.

The Chase Golf, Health Club & Spa was bought in July 2009 by the Simmons family. It opened on April 30 and has generated a fantastic response.

The state-of-the-art gym has more than 70 pieces of kit, a functional training area and two studios that offers more than 40 classes a week which are all included in the membership price.

Operations Director Bryan Davies, who has more than 15 years experience in the industry, having previously worked for David Lloyd Leisure, Fitness First and LA Fitness, said: "We are different to all the big chains where it's all about numbers. We are a family-owned business that's here to help people achieve their goals in a relaxed atmosphere which is why we have our motto 'We are all about you'. We are very proud of what we have created and are delighted to see so many people enjoying it.

More jobs will be created this year with the opening of an 80 cover restaurant which will have a terrace with stunning views and also a Golf Performance Centre, providing for the beginner to the most advanced golfer.

Mr Davies added: "We are creating a resort that caters for the whole family." For further details please visit www.thechasegolf.co.uk

Pamper Your Pets...

Whatever you pet, from the tiniest mouse to the tallest horse, you'll want to keep them happy and healthy all year round.

Make sure you protect your pets and keep them safe by keeping up-to-date with their vaccinations.

In the past many animals became severely ill because of diseases which, thanks to vaccination, are now rarely seen. Although these diseases are now less common, they have not been completely eradicated.

If the number of pets protected by vaccines drops our animal companions could be at risk from an outbreak of infectious diseases, some of which can be transmitted to humans.

Microchipping your pet gives them the best chance of being identified and returned to you if they become lost or stolen.

Many pets can be microchipped including cats, dogs, rabbits and horses, while neutering can help reduce the huge number of unwanted pets.

In the excitement of preparing for a holiday or weekend away, don't forget to make arrangements for your pets. It can take time to sort out their care, so you should always do this well in advance.

Tackeroo band talk of The Town

WOLVERHAMPTON three-piece The Town are making an appearance in Cannock tomorrow night (Friday).

Singer-songwriter Jack Fletcher, bass player Clayton Cross and drummer Tom Stanforth make up the group, which formed in 2009.

Supporting them on the night will be Ska2Nite, plus a mod 'n' soul disco.

The gig takes place at the Tackeroo pub on Bracken Close, Hednesford and doors open at 8pm.

Tickets are £5 on the door.

Comic Dodd to tickle audience

LEGENDARY comedian Ken Dodd is due in Cannock next week (Monday 30) as part of his latest tour.

The undisputed master of mirth returns to the Prince of Wales Centre in what is already a sell-out show.

The professor of Giggology and master of applied Tickleology at Knotty Ash University promises non-stop laughter until the wee small hours.

Best of British

THE Cannock Festival Chorus is rehearsing for its spring concert, called the Best of British, which takes place on Saturday, May 12 at Trinity Church, in Hednesford. The group meets on Mondays at 7.30pm at Chadsmoor Methodist Church.

And the crowd goes wild ... for TV host Packham

THE AUDIENCE is sure to go totally wild when BBC television presenter Chris Packham brings his one-man show to the Lichfield Garrick.

Wildlife expert and photographer Packham has become a regular on TV screens, featuring on programmes like The Really Wild Show, Springwatch and Autumnwatch.

Rat Pack in return to centre

SMOOTH singers The Rat Pack are returning to Cannock with their Rat Pack Vegas Spectacular.

The show is a tribute to Sammy Davis, Frank Sinatra and Dean Martin and includes a host of classic tunes.

Come Fly With Me, Mack the Knife, Me and My Shadow, Something Stupid, New York New York, Let's Face the Music and Dance and Lady is a Tramp will all be on the Rat Pack menu.

Their performance takes place at the Cannock Prince of Wales Centre on Friday February 24. Tickets are £20 from calling the box office on 01543 578762.

Away from the small screen, Packham is involved in numerous wildlife and conservation charities, including The Bat Conservation Trust, RSPB and Mammals Trust UK.

His show at the Garrick, called Chris Packham Goes Totally Wild, will see the 40-year-old present his latest collection of images from the wild.

A Garrick spokesman said: "Chris truly has a wide appeal."

Camera

"He is first and foremost an impassioned naturalist, with a huge gift as a photographer creatively and technically."

"He captures on camera perfect moments in time and space, raw emotion, beauty, perfection."

Tickets for the show on Thursday February 9 at 7.30pm, cost £16.50 for adults and £14 for students.

Call 01543 412121 or visit www.lichfieldgarrick.com to book online.

Folk trio make welcome return to hall

Folk trio Whalebones are making a welcome return to Cheslyn Hay village hall on February 4

CRITICALLY-acclaimed folk trio Whalebones make a welcome return to Cheslyn Hay village hall following a sell-out concert there last year.

The concert is at the Pinfold Lane venue on Saturday, February 4 and is part of the group's 2012 Origins tour.

It will feature high-energy acoustic music alongside haunting atmospheric tunes.

The show includes brand-new material, inventive interpretations of traditional music, rock classics and original material from their award winning album 'Three Fires', along with tall tales, folklore and the myths which inspired the music.

"We're really pleased to be coming back to this lovely hall" said Whalebones frontman Steve Downs.

Friends

"We had a wonderful night here last year, and are looking forward to seeing some old friends and hopefully making lots of new ones."

Tickets are £7.50, and are available from Michelle at the Village Hall on 01922 410483 or online at www.ticket-source.co.uk/whalebones.

For more information see www.whalebones-music.com, or follow Whalebones on Facebook or Twitter.

A night to remember Titanic at Guildhall

A YEAR of events to mark the anniversary of the Titanic disaster kicks off at the Lichfield Guildhall next week.

Performers from the Liverpool Maritime Museum will bring the luxury and terror of the fateful night to life on Wednesday (February 1) at 7pm.

Events above and below deck from April 14, 1912, will unfold as actress Emma Walsley tells the story of the opulence of first class on the infamous ship in 'The Night the Lights Went Out.'

Iceberg

Emma plays Emily Broughton Williams, a first class passenger who recounts her experience while in a hotel room in New York, waiting to return home to England.

Following that will be The Quartermasters Story, in which Dave Brown tells the tale of Robert Hichens, the man steering the ship when it hit the iceberg.

Admission is free but availability is limited. Tickets can be collected in advance from the Lichfield City Council offices at 53 Wade Street, the Samuel Johnson Birthplace Museum, Market Square, or Lichfield Tourist Information in the Garrick Theatre.

Any remaining tickets will be available on the door.

Keeping it cosy – whatever the winter weather

Examples of the energy efficient new Redrow homes, as available at Oakwood Grange, in Great Wyrley

WHILE the Government's Green Deal initiative promises homeowners help to upgrade older properties it won't take effect until the autumn. But it doesn't mean they have to endure a long cold winter in a property that's difficult to heat.

With part exchange from Redrow they could enjoy a quick and easy move to a home that's already warm, toasty and economical to run.

Pauline Turnbull, sales director for Redrow Homes (Midlands), commented: "Built to increasingly demanding environmental standards, our new homes are already packed with features designed to minimise energy use."

Well insulated, with double glazing and central heating included as standard they are 40 per cent more efficient to run than homes built only a decade ago and 70 per cent more economical than properties built before 1990.

Standard

This makes a brand new Redrow home the obvious choice for those who want to enjoy a warmer winter without having to worry about the cost of cranking up the heating.

The homes at Oakwood Grange, Great Wyrley, are among just one per cent of the nation's homes that achieve a 'B' rating for energy efficiency. The standard Redrow specification includes highly efficient heating systems with thermostatic heating control.

State of the art double glazed doors and windows, plus

A well-equipped kitchen could be yours with Redrow Homes. Properties are available throughout the area ultra-effective wall and roof insulation mean they consistently outperform the recommended minimum airtightness standard and they lose less heat and have fewer draughts; while ground insulation helps keep floors warm.

The homes also boast energy-efficient light fittings and water-efficient kitchen and bathroom fittings for further savings.

Pauline added: "Improving the efficiency of your current home may help save money on fuel bills, but why spend time and money doing that when you can move to a brand new home designed to be more economical in its use of energy?"

"The cost of making an older property as energy efficient as one of our new homes soon mounts up. To install a new heating system, loft insulation and new double-glazed windows in a typical three-bedroom home could set you back almost £10,000."

Oakwood Grange features four-bedroom homes in a choice of styles, with prices from £204,995.

And with part exchange available, buyers could find that making the move from old to new is quicker and easier than they anticipated.

"We can help customers to sell their existing property and enjoy a hassle-free move up to a bigger, better, brand new home. In simple terms we'll buy their old home so that they can buy one of ours and they could agree the deal in a matter of days," Pauline explained.

Enjoy

To find out how Redrow could help you enjoy a warmer winter, visit Oakwood Grange in Walsall Road, where the sales office and show homes are open daily from 10am to 5.30pm.

For more information, call 01922 278504 or log on to www.redrow.co.uk/oakwood

Your essential guide to the world of motoring compiled by Motoring Editor Sharon Walters

Kia Optima is one of a kind in big business saloon stakes

SHOULD you be captivated by the sculpted lines of Kia's new big saloon you ought to find the buying process pleasantly simple.

For starters, there's just one engine on offer – a fairly modest diesel – and one body shape – a saloon, with no talk of hatch or estate on the horizon.

By Ian Donald

So you'll just have to concentrate on colour and fittings and perhaps go for the auto over a conventional gearchange.

And that's it, although you might not want to hang around. Kia has only modest sales targets for the Optima and might be surprised at the interest this handsome machine generates.

It's a big car, longer even than Ford's Galaxy and to my eyes a much more handsome design, a shape overseen by the man who spent some years drawing new Audis for a living before being tempted away to inject style into Kias from Korea.

The Optima marks the completion of part one of the project that has seen eight new cars in seven years and turned Kia from a company that sold cars because they were cheap to ones that represent good value – an important difference.

Good value (think Marks & Spencer) means we'll pay a bit more for something that looks good; making us feel better and the retailer a little bit better off.

Most Optimas will end up as company cars and aren't going to be upstaged in the company car park in a sea of Galaxies and Insignias, especially when the Kia's keeper starts describing what came as standard with the car.

All Optimas share the same engine but come with a choice of four grades. The entry level Optima 1 (see, I said it was simple) costs £19,595 and has the business car essentials of air con, electric windows, Bluetooth, alloys and adjustable lumbar support for the driver – along with a huge boot easily made bigger still by folding the rear seats.

Next up is the Optima 2 in Luxe or Tech guise, each costing the same £21,695. Both have dual zone air conditioning, heated front seats (with memory and electric adjustment for the driver), reversing sensors and a more easily read instrument panel.

The Luxe then adds part leather seats, sunroof, iPod cable, big 18 inch alloy wheels and a reversing camera. Opt for the Tech and you'll find a 12 speaker sound system, smaller alloys and touch screen satellite navigation.

The Tech looks the bargain buy of the range, which is topped by the £24,495 Optima 3 which adds xenon headlights, full leather upholstery... even an automatic parking system, heated rear seats and the ability of the hard-pressed driver to cool his seat at the push of a button.

So it looks good (inside and out) and comes with lots of kit, but how does this promising newcomer drive?

Pretty well is the quick answer. The 1.7 litre, 134bhp diesel engine is vocal when cold but decently subdued once warmed through and provides enough performance to keep a busy company driver on schedule.

An automatic model was less impressive, adding vibrations through the floor and keeping the revs annoyingly high when stopped at the lights and not looking worth the £1,500 charged for dispensing with a clutch pedal.

The manual gearchange 2 Luxe on test was much more refined, with a ride that felt busy on bad roads but calmed down at a business-like cruise on the motorway.

The manual change Optima recorded 57.6mpg in the mandatory (and misleading) Euro test; my drive on a variety of roads saw 44mpg on the easily read trip computer.

With 128g/km of exhaust pollution the Optima will be easy on the company pocket, with zero road tax in year one and a reasonable £95 thereafter. Insurance, at group 17, shouldn't hit the bottom line too hard either.

What's not to like? Well, a tall driver will find the sunroof robs too much headroom, making the Tech version the one to go for. It ditches the glass but adds sat nav. So you need never miss an appointment for lack of directions.

Popular choice – the Audi A1 1.2TFSI SE is available at £199 advance payment through Motability

Time to get movingIT'S a new year and Motability, the leading car scheme for disabled people, has unveiled a great range of 2,000 cars in its New Year price list.

Disabled motorists can now choose from over 300 cars at no Advance Payment, meaning there's no upfront additional cost when leasing a reliable new car through Motability.

The iconic MINI 1.6 One, compact Toyota Yaris 1.33VVT-I TR and nippy Kia Venga 1.6 2 are all currently available with no Advance Payment.

While for those that require more room, larger vehicles such as the spacious Chevrolet Cruze 1.6 LT, the popular Vauxhall Astra 1.6 Exclusiv and the stylish Ford Focus 1.6 125 Zetec are also all available with no Advance Payment.

Anyone who receives the Higher Rate Mobility Component of the Disability Living Allowance or the War Pensioners' Mobility Supplement can simply exchange this weekly payment – currently around £50 a week – for a new car through Motability. Insurance, servicing, RAC breakdown assistance and replacement tyres are also included.

Punchy

Other vehicles available with no Advance Payment include the punchy Peugeot 308 HDi 92 Active and the reliable Hyundai i20 1.4 CRDi Comfort.

A wide range of greener vehicles with emissions of 120 grams of CO2 per km or less, are available including the sporty SEAT Leon 1.6TDI Ecomotive S Copa and the economical SKODA Fabia 1.2TDI GreenLine II. Both are available with no Advance Payment.

Mike Betts, chief executive, Motability Operations explains: "This is our first Price Guide following the streamlining of the Scheme's range which was announced in October 2011. Despite the reduction in the size of the list, the most popular cars chosen by Motability customers, including automatics, estates and diesels continue to be available and there are hundreds of cars that have no Advance Payment."

From January 2012, the core range of vehicles from Motability all have an Advance Payment of £2,000 or below, together with diesel, estate and automatic versions of those models.

This means that the most popular cars continue to be offered, such as the "WHATCAR? of the Year 2011" – the Audi A1 1.2TFSI SE – available at £199 Advance Payment. Other models, such as the popular Volkswagen Golf 1.2TSi 105 S, with air conditioning, and the spacious Honda New Civic 1.4i-VTEC SE are both available at £299 Advance Payment.

Bright lights, big city – reflections and oncoming headlights can be a night driving distraction

Take extra precautions for driving in the dark

DRIVING in the dark is a very different experience to driving in the day.

Speed is more difficult to judge, distances of other vehicles can be hard to calculate when faced with a wall of headlights, and you are likely to be more tired than usual.

But this shouldn't put you off. The roads are a lot quieter, and it is a great time to make progress. Bearing in mind a few points will help make your drive as safe and enjoyable as possible.

Turn on your headlights before sunset and keep them on for an hour after sunrise so that it's easier for other drivers to see you in twilight. Equally important is making sure all your exterior lights are clean and working properly.

By Caroline Holmes

IAM
DRIVING ROAD SAFETY
www.iam.org.uk

You should also make sure all your windows are clean, inside and out. Dirty windows will increase glare from other vehicles and are more prone to steaming up. Clean, properly positioned mirrors will reduce dazzle as well as blind spots. Turn off the interior lights and dim the dashboard as well, if you can. This will cut down on interior reflections.

Headlights

Read the road ahead and look out for clues that might not be available to you usually. While visibility is reduced, glimmers of light at the top of hills and at bends could be the headlights of other vehicles, giving you prior warning. And as always, be able to stop your vehicle within the distance you can see to be clear – at night this will probably only be as far as your headlights reach, unless there are street lights.

On rural roads, drive on full beam whenever possible but dip your lights when faced with another road user to avoid dazzling them. If a driver approaching you fails to dip their own headlights, look away to the verge on the left-hand side to avoid being dazzled yourself. And make the most of other people's lights – use the light shed by vehicles ahead or from road-side lights – not just street lights – to help you see further ahead.

Driving at night, you are likely to be more tired than usual, so taking breaks is especially important. Stop regularly for a rest and park up in a safe place for a nap when you need to – no journey is worth putting yourself or others in danger for.

To keep drivers safe this winter, the IAM has a new web address, drivingadvice.org.uk, with traffic updates, weather forecasts and tips on how to drive safely in winter.

Tips cover rain, snow, ice, fog and wind – everything you can expect in a typically unpredictable British winter. Check it out before you travel.

The revised Forester comes with a range of Boxer engines and offers great versatility

Forester a worthy winner of accolade

IT really didn't come as any surprise to me that the recently revamped Subaru Forester was named 'Junior Crossover of the Year' by specialist off-roading magazine, Total 4x4.

The go-anywhere, family friendly Forester, which is now available with a choice of extensively revised petrol and diesel Boxer engines, faced competition from the likes of a Toyota Urban Cruiser, Suzuki SX4 and Skoda Octavia Scout.

However, thanks to its sure-footed Symmetrical All-Wheel-Drive configuration, car-like driving dynamics and exceptional practicality, judges singled out the Japanese crossover for the highest praise.

The panel of experts at Total 4x4 magazine said of the Forester: "Typically of Subaru, the Forester does very good things without making a fuss of it. The combination it offers of quality, value, practical usability and driving talent makes it very hard indeed to beat."

"The Forester has always been a star in its own corner of the market, and heavily revised petrol and diesel engines means it now shines brighter than ever."

The 2.0-litre Boxer diesel Forester range, which returns an impressive 47.9 mpg combined, starts at £23,070 (on-the-road) for the entry-level 2.0D X, rising to £25,070 for the 2.0D XC, and £29,070 for the range-topping 2.0D XS NavPlus.

Customers preferring petrol power have a choice of two models – the Forester 2.0X and 2.0XS, costing £21,370 and £25,370 respectively in manual guise. Automatic versions are available at a £1,000 premium.

Revisions to the 2.0-litre petrol model see its average economy go up from 32.8mpg to 37.7mpg. CO2 emissions reduced from 199g/km to 173g/km, which is enough to put the new Forester five company car tax bands lower than its predecessor.

The changes contribute to upping fuel economy from 44.8mpg to 47.9mpg and CO2 from 167g/km to 155g/km, dropping the car two tax bands.

The Forester also got some minimal styling tweaks including changes to the front grille and the instruments also see a change.

I recently drove the diesel and that's why I was not surprised at the award. This is a car perfectly suited to my needs, living down a dirt track and spending much of my motoring on B roads in Shropshire complete with floods and (usually!) icy roads.

The permanent four-wheel drive is a positive boon helping boost traction and coupled with good suspension, there's any feeling from the bumps on my dirt track or many of those B roads.

This engine is smooth in all respects with little noise or vibration inside and in addition there's little wind or road noise.

Inside it's not luxurious, but then I didn't expect it to be, but it had everything I needed with sound build quality and the instruments were well laid out.

You get excellent all-round vision with plenty of head and legroom in front and in the back with a wide range of seat and steering wheel adjustment to help drivers of different sizes get comfortable.

Quality
There's a decent-sized boot and extending it is easy, as I found out when moving a desk, because the rear seats are spring-loaded, released just by levers.

Specification across the range is good and includes self-levelling rear suspension, climate control, heated front seats and a quality sound system.

All Foresters come with a three-year or 60,000-mile warranty plus 12-year anti-rust cover and three-year paintwork warranty.

This is in addition to three years membership of Subaru Assistance – a comprehensive home and roadside repair and recovery package throughout the UK and Europe, administered by Mondial Assistance.

Service intervals are 12,000 miles or one year – whichever arrives first.

Strictly fans just wild about Harry

Strictly Come Dancing Tour, NIA

STRICTLY dance fans are just wild about Harry and it's easy to see why.

Any doubts that the reigning glitter ball winner would not be able to thrill as he did on the popular Strictly Come Dancing TV series were soon dispelled as he performed the Argentine tango at the packed Birmingham NIA on the first night of the tour.

Fans were spellbound as were the three judges who each awarded him a maximum 10.

Craig Revel Horwood, known for his harsh comments, gave him the ultimate compliment: "I just wish I could dance like that."

There was no doubt who would be the winner at the end of the night and sure enough it was McFly drummer Harry Judd.

He only missed the final maximum by one point scoring 59 out of 60 (dropping one point when judge Len Goodman gave him a nine after a slight slip up on his second dance, the quick-step).

The judges put him at the top of the leader board and the fans followed suit via text. A percentage of each text charge goes to charity.

Second again was Chelsee Healey, who made it clear that she was aiming to dethrone Harry during the tour. She and favourite Jason Donovan (third on the board) delivered excellent performances.

Last and definitely least was Nancy Dell'Olio, who moved little more than the chair she used in the first routine.

In her second dance, and I use the word loosely, she was carried on as Cleopatra and you could probably count the number of dance steps on one hand. Low on dance but high on entertainment value.

No need to be nervous

Memories Are Made of This, Chase Day Services Prince of Wales Centre

AN EVENING of nostalgia, which was touching in so many ways, was served up by producer Barbara Grayston, containing contemporary songs, sketches and news reports from the Second World War.

Barbara says she was nervous about her latest venture as she had never put together a complete show previously.

Her aim was to give as many as possible the chance to appear on a professional stage and thereby promote self-esteem and satisfaction among her members.

This was a team-effort, which included Chase Theatrecraft, Theatre First Children's Company and a number of community performers – and it worked well.

All of those who took part are to be congratulated on this first effort, which should encourage them to present other productions.

Bryan Till

Clever comedy concept

Merry Wives of Windsor Prince of Wales Centre

SHAKESPEARE came to Cannock in a more-modern form – with this classic comedy.

Five-performer group, Oddssocks Productions, was making the first visit of its 23-year history and the actors certainly made an impact on their appreciative audience, which included a sizeable group of students from a local secondary school.

The company has obviously learned its trade over the years.

The audience were engaged in the pre-curtain interaction and from then on was bombarded with the pace of the production. This clever concept had the play set in the 1950s and played by a commercial television company's repertory company, which resulted in the small talented group playing a total of 16 characters.

A simple but most effective composite set was used to great effect with live video cameras displaying to the audience the supposed TV recording.

Director Andy Barrow used every comedy trick in the book in this lively production which included the humour-style of such groundbreaking shows as Acorn Antiques, Fawlty Towers, The Kumars at Number 42 and Little Britain.

Anton with best partner

Anton & Erin, 'Let's Do It', Birmingham Symphony Hall
THE Strictly Come Dancing tour may have waltzed into town just yards away, but that didn't stop more than 2,000 people enjoying Anton Du Beke and Erin Boag at the Symphony Hall.

Accompanied by an orchestra, the smooth sounds of crooner Lance Ellington and four backing dancers, the duo put on an entertaining display.

Having teamed up with the likes of Ann Widdecombe and Nancy Dell'Olio in the past, it is hard to take Anton too seriously. However, it is clear he can dance, he and Erin have danced professionally together for years and their chemistry and rapport was there for all to see.

There were costume changes galore, in fact Erin will wear more than 500 throughout the tour, but the whole show was flawlessly danced and choreographed and with excellent musicianship throughout.

Underground, overground

Walk The Lines – Mark Mason (Random House Books, hardback, £12.99)

MIDLANDER Mark Mason has obsessions with maps and with London, and combined the two when he set himself the task of walking every line of the London Underground – overground.

That means visiting every one of the 269 stations, often more than once as the 11 lines connect. The task involved walking 403 miles from rural fringes and suburbs to the landmarks of central London. Thankfully it doesn't become a gruelling slog for the reader thanks to Mason's inexhaustible supply of London trivia and a selection of travelling companions. His worst experience is his ill-advised idea to recreate the infamous Circle Line pub crawl. That takes its toll, as it requires having an alcoholic drink in every pub closest to a station on the line – all 27 of them.

The Fat Chance (Penguin, paperback, £6.99)

THREE ladies worried about their weight get more than they bargained for in their battle of the bulge at a slimming club. Former magazine journalist Pattison's naughty girls' romp is a fun novel, an easy read about friendship, food and finding love.

puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.

Leaders stay top with 3-0 success

CANNOCK Hockey Club fifths eased to a 3-0 home win over North Stafford fourths.

After 10 minutes a silky bit of skill from Cotterill set up Clark to grab his fifth goal of the season.

The rest of the half was pretty even, and it was a similar story in the second half, but with 10 minutes remaining Cannock found a way through and Mitchell grabbed a close-range goal. A late effort from Mann completed a comfortable victory for the league leaders.

The second team lost 5-1 at Leek, Mandee Sandhar scoring the consolation, and the sevenths fell 3-2 to Ludlow despite Richard Sadler's brace.

Cannock Badgers A beat Old Wulfrunians Badgers 4-1 away, their 10th win in 11 competitive matches.

Alex Kingston scored twice before half-time but Old Wulfs reduced the arrears in the second half.

The Cannock side scored again through Lloyd Manley and Kingston secured his hat-trick from a short corner.

Match off after four goals let in CANNOCK Ladies Hockey Club fifths' match at The Dell was abandoned with 15 minutes to go following a back injury to a Dudley second team player.

Cannock were trailing 4-0 at the time, despite making a bright start to the game.

For the first 20 minutes Cannock looked the better side and forced five short corners without reward.

They also failed to convert a penalty flick and were made to pay in the second half as Dudley, playing some excellent hockey, scored four good goals.

Cannock Ladies thirds performed superbly at Uttoxeter to take a point from the home club's first team and league leaders with a 1-1 draw.

Goalkeeper Beth Witton turned in one of her best performances of the season so far.

The fourths drew 2-2 against Wolverhampton thanks to goals from Danni Stevenson and Sammie Holland.

Hooker Morgan's happy hat-trick debut

BURNTWOOD rugby seconds made it three wins out of three this season against their opposite numbers from Handsworth.

They scored eight tries, including three in the first half when they faced the worst of the weather.

They did not make the best of starts, losing Hal Gozukucuk to the sin bin after just eight minutes, but Handsworth missed the resulting penalty attempt at goal and then fell seven points behind two minutes later.

A good drive from a line-out had the visitors in retreat and a pass back inside enabled hooker Morgan to score on his debut for the club. Brett Taylor converted.

Handsworth missed with another penalty attempt and then within a minute of Gozukucuk returning to action the lead was doubled. Scrum half Taylor's break was finished off by half back partner Ben Holt for a good try, which Taylor converted.

Handsworth hit back and were unlucky not to score when a close range driving maul crossed the line but no try was awarded. They had two more chances to score but the hosts eventually turned solid defence into attack. Five minutes from half-time, good handling down the back line set winger Dan Garrity in motion.

His pass back inside allowed Holt to score his second try to make the half-time lead 19-0.

With the wind behind them, Burntwood were soon in the visitors' 22. They elected to scrum from five metres out when given the penalty option. Possession was messy but Morgan rescued the ball to feed the backs. Another inside pass saw Gozukucuk charge to the line for the fourth try.

Hooker Morgan then scored twice in five minutes to complete a hat-trick.

The first came from all his own work with an unstoppable run through centre field from the 22m line. Holt converted. His third try rounded off a flowing team move.

To their credit, Handsworth battled their way upfield and broke their duck with a try following a well-executed switch pass.

Good hands by the home backs took them to more than 40 points with 12 minutes left. Centre Dan Thornton stretched his way over the line for a try converted by Morgan. They were almost in again seven minutes later when Morgan exchanged passes with Jon Pucci but the winger was pulled back for a foot in touch.

Then Holt thought he had also completed a hat-trick but the final pass to him was adjudged forward.

With time almost up, the ball ran loose from a Handsworth scrum and Gozukucuk was first to react, seizing possession and diving over the line to conclude the afternoon's entertainment.

Wingers' tries win the day for Wood

A LACKLUSTRE Burntwood rugby third team won at home to Cannock seconds by 17-14.

It was tough on the visitors who enjoyed the better of the play as both sides fought hard in atrocious weather.

Cannock were the better side in the first period and yet found themselves 10-7 behind.

Home wingers Lewis Aston and Nick Peplow scored a breakaway try apiece before the visitors cut the deficit with a well-deserved converted try.

Early in the second half Cannock doubled their tally which, as the half wore on, seemed to have earned them the win.

However, with 10 minutes to go Peplow did what he does best. He backed his pace to take him round on the outside to slide in at the corner for the winning try which was superbly converted from the touchline by Mitch Carless.

Burntwood Under-16s came from behind to defeat Tamworth 12-7 at The Sportsyard.

Tamworth scored the only points of a tight first half when sloppy defending by Burntwood allowed them in for a converted try.

In the second half Wood dominating the opening minutes. Strong running from Dan Bickley and Ryan Johnson led to the big second row scoring Wood's first try, which was unconverted.

After sustained pressure they scored a second try, another for Johnson, who was having the game of his life with great running. Fly-half Charlie Liggins converted on the five-metre line. Wood won 12-7 and kept their chances of winning the league alive.

Staffs bowlers are just pipped

STAFFORDSHIRE County bowling team beat Worcestershire County 10-6 in the Express & Star three counties championship.

But it wasn't enough for overall victory.

Staffordshire won both triples and one each of the fours, doubles and singles.

Midland Counties, who scored a 15-1 win over Staffordshire and beat Worcestershire 9-7, are the first winners of the Express & Star Shield.

Where there's a Will there's a way to score

LICHFIELD rugby firsts anticipated a tough encounter - and that's what they got before winning by 26 points.

From the kick-off, Bedworth drove aggressively from the base of the ruck and worked the ball practically the full length of the pitch. However, the Lichfield pack dominated the ensuing scrum, allowing Will Cotterhill to pounce on the ball and eventually clear the Lichfield lines.

The Lichfield pack forced a mistake at the Bedworth lineout and from the resultant scrum Cotterhill started and finished a well-worked blindside move after Paul Maxwell-Keys and Greg Massey linked well.

From the kick-off, Richard Burton caught and expertly distributed the ball across the pitch.

Massey, in typically flamboyant style, stepped and weaved his way through the Bedworth defence to score again under the posts, converted by brother Josh.

Bedworth stuck to their game plan, and after some strong driving work by their forwards, Danny Coleman scored their opening try.

Following a strong run and line break from the impressive Tom Adams, now back in the sort of form which he had prior to his shoulder injury, George Cotterhill ran powerfully down the left touchline.

As defenders began to close his space down, he chipped the ball forward to place the covering Bedworth fullback under pressure and he fumbling the ball. Cotterhill gathered and ran in a superb individual try.

Bedworth 19
Lichfield 45

As with the first half, Bedworth started the brighter and John Allison scored after only four minutes. Fly half Alan Foster converted.

This seemed to wake the Lichfield players up and in nine minutes they amassed 19 points.

Greg Massey scored two almost identical tries from well-worked blindside moves. He converted both himself. Substitute Matt Smith scored a superb try to stretch Lichfield's lead to 38-12.

Bedworth openside flanker Matt Randle scored in the 71st minute and Foster converted.

Burton, for Lichfield, and Paul Hurst, for Bedworth, were both yellow carded.

A great passing movement between substitute Brad Rowlands and Cotterhill ended with Rowlands score under the posts.

Josh Massey capped off an impressive all-round performance with the conversion.

Step in right direction is boost for Rugeley rugby

RUGELEY RFC will be stepping up at Twickenham during England's RBS Six Nations fixtures against Wales and Ireland after being selected to attend the launch of RBS RugbyForce.

Grassroots clubs which register for RBS RugbyForce before the two international fixtures will have their names prominently displayed on a step at Twickenham Stadium.

The community volunteer programme supports clubs to build their future.

England international Tom Wood was at Twickenham to unveil the first four names on the steps, which included Rugeley.

The RFU selected them because they are big advocates of the programme.

In partnership with the RFU and Rugby Football Foundation, RBS RugbyForce helps grassroots clubs to improve their facilities and provides guidance and tools to make their club a more sustainable business.

The programme culminates in a weekend when clubs get a makeover.

Wood said: "I know from playing grassroots rugby at Bakers Butts RFC in my youth how important a club like Rugeley RFC is within the local community and how much support clubs need to keep themselves afloat. RBS

Martin De Ridder, Nathan Homer and Jacob Graham of Rugeley Rugby Club with England international Tom Wood by the Rugeley club step at Twickenham

RugbyForce is so important because it helps clubs help themselves."

Rugeley secretary Martin de Ridder said RBS RugbyForce was vital to its clubhouse project. "We had been without our own clubhouse for over 20 years but shortly after registering with the programme an old dilapidated building became available to us and we used the RBS RugbyForce weekend to take the first steps towards developing our very own clubhouse," he said.

"We really can't wait to see our club name on the steps at Twickenham and hope that one day, one of our players will be pulling on the famous white jersey having taken his or her first steps in the clubhouse we have built."

Top dogs cruise to away win

CHASETOWN Reserves stretched their lead at the top of Division One to six points as they took a 2-0 win at Highgate United with a fine footballing display on a boggy pitch in blustery conditions.

Karl Edwards got his name on the scoresheet with a 45th-minute tap-in having beaten the Highgate keeper to meet Craig Deakin's cross from the corner flag.

In reply, The Gates carved out chances of their own with Ronnie Adje and Jamie Smith engineered a fine solo run, forcing a near post save from Mark Wiggins.

At the other end, Jonathan Gould had a glorious chance for Chasetown when he hit the post after stealing a yard on Jake Scott but the decisive goal from Chad Degville came on 74 minutes.

Gould picked out Edwards, whose high cross found its way to Degville, who lost his marker on the far post and headed home.

Win keeps Rangers in the top spot

Rugeley Rangers Girls U15 3
Burton Albion 0

RANGERS maintained their lead at the top of the league with this victory.

Chelsea Stevens scored a penalty and Holly Meehan doubled the advantage.

Burton dominated the second-half but Paige Jackson made the points safe with Rugeley's third. Player of the match was keeper Alex Smith.

Chasetown Girls U13 3
Burntwood Phoenix U13 0

Burntwood's defiant keeper was unable to prevent a Chasetown victory. Beth Hickman and Megan Dainty went close and Molly Heale hit the woodwork.

Summer Johnson then scored twice before Sarah Bennett lashed in the third. Hednesford United Girls U12 15
Silverdale JFC 0

Hednesford dominated with goals from Kate Clinton (5), Lana Tittle (4), Lois Brindley (3), Samantha Fawdon (2) and Paige Smith-Kirkham. Silverdale hit the net from a free-kick but it was disallowed, giving keeper Tiffany Whelan her sixth consecutive clean sheet.

Lichfield Diamonds Girls 1
Chasetown Girls U13 0

Chasetown had their moments but Lichfield got the game's only goal.

Scholars still seek inspiration

CHASETOWN'S first Evo-Stik Northern Premier League points of 2012 remain elusive after FC United of Manchester were comprehensive winners at the Scholars Ground.

The Scholars were barely able to create chances for much of the 90 minutes in a poor performance, allowing the men from Manchester to continue their push for a play-off place with a lively display, writes Dave Goddard.

Dean Perrow made a breakthrough for the Scholars down the left as early as the third minute, but his tamely-struck shot was parried by goalkeeper James Spencer.

FC United's first chance came after Darren Stride conceded a dangerous free-kick on the left, but Jack Farmer headed clear.

Chasetown 0
FC United of Manchester 3

A Dave Bridgewater free-kick on 15 minutes sparked a game of pinball in the penalty area but each Scholars chance was blocked.

Then a Danny Smith shot from the right flew straight into Spencer's arms.

The visitors took the lead in the 25th minute when a well-placed cross from the right from Kyle Jacobs was met by Mike Norton, whose header left Ryan Price with no chance in the Chasetown goal.

The hosts' frustrations deepened on 35 minutes when Spencer dived to save Perrow's penalty, after the striker had been pushed in the back by Adam Jones. A host of Scholars chances followed but Spencer and his defenders were equal to them, while Wolfenden then dodged a brace of tackles on the left but his cross-cum-shot was cleared by Jimmy Turner.

Price made a fine diving save to deny Wolfenden on 53 minutes, but things went from bad to worse six minutes later.

Substitute Greg Downes brought down Steve Johnson in the area and Dean Stott lashed his penalty kick beyond Price to double FC United's lead.

In the last minute, FC United made it three when an attack down the right allowed Wolfenden to send a low shot across Price and into the far corner.

Chasetown win a penalty, but Dean Perrow could not convert

Smash'n'grab Pitmen topple league leaders

HEDNESFORD TOWN'S title ambitions were soaring after they inflicted a first home defeat of the season on league leaders Chester.

Victory on Saturday took the Pitmen level on points with their vanquished opponents and a crowd of 3,333 tasted the atmosphere of a big game in the Evo-Stik Northern Premier League.

Hednesford boss Rob Smith, mindful of Chester's attacking prowess this season, set up with a 4-5-1 formation but both teams struggled with a very strong wind, howling into the face of Dan Crane in the away team's goal.

Crane was forced to beat away a shot by Antoni Sarcevic on 15 minutes before the opening goal came on 22 against the run of play to send the vociferous Pitmen travelling support wild.

Chris Clements picked up a loose ball 30 yards out, took the ball past two defenders and, from distance, curled a beauty into the top corner, giving goalkeeper John Danby no chance.

Squander

The goal caused Chester to plough forward, but, as an attack broke down with an unsuccessful penalty shout, a long clearance suddenly put Gary Hay through on goal to fire into the corner and double the lead on 34 minutes.

The 80 or so away supporters were in dreamland but their mood was darkened somewhat by a Chester penalty, Matty McNeill falling to the floor after backing into Cheyenne Dunkley.

The referee pointed to the spot and, despite Crane going close to keeping it out, Matthew McGinn halved the deficit just before half-time.

Chester 1

The second-half saw Chester squander several chances to equalise.

Crane denied Michael Wilde and Christian Smith with splendid saves, the last coming in injury time.

But the keeper's efforts would have availed his side nothing had Jamey Osborne not desperately blocked the rebound.

The final whistle was blown after an agonising five minutes of stoppage time and Hednesford's players rushed to their elated supporters to celebrate.

Chester FC: Danby, Mackin (Wilde 7), McGinn, Horan, Taylor, Smith, Sarcevic (Booth 53), Rainford (Simm 79), McNeill, Brown, Howard. Subs not used: Ormrod, Judge.

Hat-trick of trebles as Chase strike 13

Chase Athletic U13 13
Holy Name Manor 0

IT was unlucky 13 for Holy Name in this cup tie.

The visitors have scored 72 goals in heading the fourth tier, but three divisions separate the sides.

Connell Jevons, Joe Hartshorne and Josh Davies all scored hat-tricks while Kai Lycett added two and Dominik Kovacs and Jordan Gittings also scored.

Chase Athletic U14 3
Sportsco 1

Jack Smith scored the winner as Chase came from behind in this Shield encounter.

Third division Sportsco were good value for their half-time lead, but first division Chase came out on top.

Harry Hadley rifled home through a ruck of players and then touched home at the far post from a corner before Smith's late finish.

Chasetown Scholars U12 6
Four Oaks 0

The Scholars progressed into the quarter-finals of the Lichfield League Cup with an emphatic win over Four Oaks.

Zak Brown notched a hat-trick, Kieron Hardwick bagged a brace and James Faherty was also on the scoresheet.

Supporters' player of the match was James Faherty and manager's player, Jake Deavall.

Burntwood Dragons U9 0
Sutton United 0

An even game saw both defences stand firm to keep chances to a minimum.

Burntwood Dragons Reds U12 4
Wryley Panthers 0

This was a solid team performance from the Reds with some excellent finishes.

Arron Beale's bicycle kick found the top corner; Michael Galleard slotted home after good build-up play and Jordan Corrigan scored twice.

Chase Stags 2
Cannock Town Blues U10 3

Blues took their best win yet in beating a team from a higher division in this Shield clash. They fell behind after just 15 seconds but levelled through Jack Davis before half-time.

Blues went ahead through an own goal before Kyle Horton gave them a two-goal cushion. Stags scored and laid siege but Cannock held on.

Rugeley Rangers Lions U11 2
Lichfield City Spire 4

The proverbial game of two halves saw the Lions lead 2-0 through Ben Herriman and Cade O'Brien only for Lichfield to rattle in four.

Race close to hitting its limit of runners

ONE of the region's longest established races, the Florette Fradley 10k, returns in March.

It takes place in the village on Sunday, March 11 at 10.30am – and may hit its maximum number of entrants well in advance of the closing date.

Kevin Wilson, of Lichfield organisers KP Events, said: "Last year the field was the biggest ever and we realized that the maximum field of 800 had to be set on that course using the facilities we currently use."

"If we want to be bigger still we'd need to look at the route and the provision of extra facilities and that may not be the best outcome."

Details are on the website www.kpevents.net or call race secretary Paul Griffin on 07947 698147.

Entries are still open for the Xtreme 10k Challenge at Catton Hall Estate, near Alrewas, on Sunday, February 5 with a 10.30 am start.

This is a race with a difference – 65 obstacles that entrants have to climb over, crawl under, wade through up to their necks and run up and down slowly or quickly.

Burns' night to savour lake triumph

Sponsored by Archline Angling BLACKFORDS Angling Club's recent match on Kingswood Lake proved to be a cracker despite adverse conditions with the lake level up 12 inches and a strong wind.

Fifteen anglers weighed in 10lb or more but the winner with a weight of 33lb 6oz was John Burns from peg 25.

He was followed by Chris Brown with 31lb 4oz while Dave Ridgway was third on 25lb 7oz. Most of the catches were made up of skimmer bream and a few nice roach.

Blackfords AC tickets will be available again during the last week of April. See the website www.archlineangling.co.uk for updates.

Season tickets are now available for Wolverhampton AA which features some of the best canal fishing in the country with stretches at Penkridge and Teddesley regularly producing quality roach, chub and bream.

Carp continue to feed well and both the Turf Pool and Calf Heath Reservoir have produced fish over 20lb in the last few days.

Veterans' Thrussell scores hat-trick

LICHFIELD Hockey Club's veterans won a classic end-to-end friendly against Sutton Coldfield 5-4 in a competitive but enjoyable over-35s encounter.

Dave Thrussell got a hat-trick while Dave Eastland scored a well-taken goal following a good passing movement involving Tony Wilmot and Martin Clarke.

But it fell to Paul Campbell to score the winning goal from a penalty corner.

There was a derby clash in the league when Lichfield men's fourths met the club's fifth side. The fourths came through to win 4-2 courtesy of a hat-trick by Thrussell and a goal from a strong shot at the top of the D by Peter Newton.

In a game which was competitive but played in the right spirit, the three points helped the fourths to move up the table.

Meanwhile, the men's eighths beat Kings Heath 4-2 while the tenths lost by the same score to Belper.

On a very damp and windy day the Lichfield Brer Badgers found themselves up against the Lichfield Brock Badgers when Belper and Kings Heath could not get a side onto the field of play. Although the Brer scored twice through Jack Harrison and Jamie Carter, the Brocks were not to be denied and won 4-2 with goals from Jamie Wilkinson (2), Oliver Mason and Matt Fryer.

Lichfield Ladies seconds beat Wolverhampton 4-1 to go joint top of Stafford Division One with Uttroxteter.

Lichfield had the initial pressure only to go a goal down after 10 minutes.

But they stayed patient and shortly before the break were rewarded with a tap-in goal by Becky Wright after a series of neat passes. Soon after the break Lichfield went ahead when Wright scored again.

Lichfield continued to attack and their good fitness and speed saw two goals in the last 10 minutes by Rachael Eastland, from a short corner, and Jo Grant, who finished off a fine cross.

The ladies fourths dominated Barton and won 4-0 with Emma Harper bagging the lot, two in each half. Kate Moreton had a strong game, distributing the ball to the forward line time after time.

Lichfield remain five points clear at the top of Stafford League Division Three.

Poachers Hayes get share of the points

HEATH HAYES led twice at home against Stratford Town but had to be content with a 2-2 draw.

Both sides struggled to come to terms with the muddy conditions and Town had the better of the limited chances.

Stuart Herlihy had an early chance to put Town in front but Hayes took a 52nd-minute lead. Dave Waple was tripped in the box by Danny Haynes and although Richard Morris saved Joe McNulty's spot-kick, Craig Hancox thumped home the loose ball.

Town bought on Jamie Molyneux who won a penalty almost immediately after being tripped by Luke Jones. Chris Murphy levelled from the spot.

The home attack was looking more threatening by the minute.

On 76 minutes Waple scored a goal of real quality. Spotting keeper Morris off his line he lifted the ball over the custodian's head and into the net to register his 17th league goal of the season.

The Stratford defence looked to have the measure of things. However in injury time, poor defending allowed Martin Thompson to poach the equaliser.

Ford's hat-trick in Lea Hall romp

LEA HALL Under-10s bounced back from conceding a first-half goal to beat Castle Vale JKs Stars 5-2 at home.

There were two goals from Lee Cope and a hat-trick from Jay Ford, including one from the penalty spot.

Castle Vale fought back but goalkeeper Ben Connors preserved the advantage.

Early goals then Athletic hit five

WYRLEY Juniors United Under-11s took the lead in a Shield match at home to Chase Athletic through a Sam Foreman free-kick only to lose 5-2.

The keeper spilled a second Foreman free-kick and Tom Peacock followed up for the second. Chase raised their game to score five, including an own-goal.

TAKE THIS CHANCE, URGES BOSS SMITH

HEDNESFORD manager Rob Smith today called for a repeat of "the Lord Mayor's Show" against Chester when they look to leapfrog them as league leaders on Saturday.

Three tough away trips in seven days culminate at play-off chasing FC United of Manchester, while the table-toppers host struggling Mickleover Sports.

Both are neck-and-neck at the top of the Evo-Stik Northern Premier League, level on points after Hednesford's stunning win at Chester last weekend.

But Smith's men have already passed up one chance to go top, after they fell to their first defeat of 2012 in a 1-0 loss at Marine on Tuesday night.

That left Chester with a game in hand but, for now, all the Pitmen have to do at Gigg Lane is better their result to reach the summit.

Smith said: "Marine is out of the way now, we look to Saturday and we have to make sure we come away from FC United with something.

"Hopefully, we will put in a performance like the Lord Mayor's Show last week and the key thing is to not to get beaten.

"We have done well to get where we are and we can't lose sight of that.

"But there's going to be a few twists and turns yet, every week something could go in your favour.

"For instance, next week they go to Chorley and we have got Bursough, so what could happen then?"

Hednesford slipped to their first league defeat of 2012 on a wet Tuesday evening in Merseyside.

Neil Harvey's 20th-minute strike was enough to split the teams.

The Pitmen made just one change from the line-up that

by Craig Birch

had defeated Chester the previous Saturday with Mark Beesley coming in for Elliott Durrell.

In the sixth minute Hednesford defender Cheyenne Dunkley had to react quickly to snuff out Harvey.

Town then had two half-chances to take the lead as first Jamie Osborne saw his shot tipped over by home keeper Ryan McMahon before Beesley flashed a header wide from a Kyle Haynes cross.

On 20 minutes, though, Harvey found his way through the Hednesford defence and smashed the ball home from just inside the area.

Town almost dragged themselves level on 30 minutes when Chris Clements' corner was superbly met by Dunkley, but his header from six yards out was cleared off the line by Harvey.

Ten minutes from time Town almost grabbed an equaliser. Following some good link-up play Beesley found room inside the box, but his driving effort took a slight deflection and clipped the crossbar.

Cannock make it through to cup final

Cannock press with ball in hand during their 20-point Owen Cup semi-final victory over Linley

CANNOCK moved into rugby's Owen Cup final with a 25-5 victory over Linley on a rainy day in Cannock.

Hard running lines from Scott Lathe and Ryan Pali put Linley's defence on the back foot with Will Jukes angling for gaps either side of the breakdown.

Ruck support from Simon Scott and Sonny Stanaway ensured multiple phases and Stephen Frost opened the scoring when he drove over the line, taking tacklers with him. The second try came when young Stewart MacDougall took advantage of Bryan Yates' line cut to go under the sticks for a converted try and 12-0 lead.

However, silly infringements at the breakdown allowed Linley a foothold and quick ball from an attacking lineout saw the winger cross to cut the arrears to 12-5.

Scrappy play either side of half-time concluded with a series of attacking scrums for Cannock and a Phil Pedley penalty to get the scoreboard ticking again. Successive drives and some quick ball from Yates saw Joe Brookes driven over for the third try.

Using the wind and the slope to their advantage Cannock were able to pin Linley back.

The final try came when Jon Freeman stole Linley line-out ball and drove for the line. He was held up but Pali stepped up to leap and stretch for the line.
